

Permits Issued in Wilmette Number
28—Total $182,149

Wilmette closed the month of November with a total of twenty-eight building permits authorizing improvements, new and remodeling, amounting to $182,149, all of which, except about $35,000, is going into the eight residence properties.

Two improvements were authorized in the business section, costing $18,000, one being a boiler house and some alterations at the plant of the Krauss Cleaning & Dyeing Co., at 1215 Washington street, costing $6,000, and the other is a brick agency building which James Crabb is erecting at 728 Twelfth street, costing $12,000 and which is to be occupied by the National Biscuit Co., as a distributing center for the north shore.

There were also permits for six remodeling jobs, amounting to $9,749 and twelve for private garages, costing $5,400.

The new residences authorized were at 1020 Chestnut street, Robert M. Sherritt, $61,000; 700 Forest avenue, C. W. Moody, $20,000; 340 Central avenue, David L. Golden, $17,000; Indian Hill section, H. G. Phillips, $15,000; 1437 Forest avenue, B. C. Davidson, $13,000; 121 Central Park avenue, H. Hessing, $9,000; 1220 Gregory avenue, James Crabb, $8,000; 2151 Thornwood avenue, Mrs. H. Harris, $6,000.

In a recent issue it was stated that Raymond E. Thatcher had severed his connection with Smith & Brown, Inc., realtors of Wilmette and Winnetka, and joined the sales force of the Nash Sales Agency of Winnetka. E. E. Thatcher, father of Raymond, is still connected with the above firm of realtors as manager of their Wilmette office.

Glencoe Permits

The permit for Glencoe's new $125,000 business and apartment building to be erected on Hazel avenue west of Vernon and issued the past month, brought the total of the twelve building permits authorized during November to $261,150, far in excess of the corresponding month last year when the total was only $155,455.

Five new residences were started last month, the total cost of which is over $130,000; there was only one small remodeling job and permits were issued for five private garages, costing $5,150.

Permits for the five houses were issued to the following persons:

A. P. Kloepfer, two story frame and brick veneer, at 399 Jackson avenue, $18,000; L. A. Griffin, a frame and brick veneer at 1170 Elm Ridge drive, $19,000; E. L. Pearson, brick veneer, at 205 Harbor street, $13,800; B. W. Cooke, two story tile and frame, at 35 Lakewood drive, $55,000; Ira E. Fisher, two story brick and frame at 210 Hazel avenue, $30,000.
