

That Deserve a Place on Every Christmas Tree

Gift Stationery of Distinction

Write it on your gift list. "Stationery from Rosenberg's." For stationery to be gifty must be distinctive in order that it may reflect your good taste. $1.00 to $7.50.

Christmas Scents
of Enticing Charm

It may be a bottle of Black Narcissus at $4.50, or a delightful toilet water such as Burnham's Wood Violet at $2.00, or an atomizer by De-Vilbiss, 98c to $15.

Sheer Chiffons
Are Very Gifty

Sheer far beyond the ordinary and the more appreciated for it. Of ingrain silk with picot tops in exquisite shades, $3.95. First Floor

A Kit Bag
Carries Good
Christmas Wishes

A genuine seal bag in black will just suit his masculine fancy — and he will be ever grateful to the giver. How excellent, how lasting a gift of fine luggage! $24.50.

Second Floor

Every Woman
Wants a French
Beaded Bag

The artistry of the designs on silver or gold backgrounds, the fine, evenly woven steel beads and the engraved frames makes these bags of regal beauty, at $10 and $15.

First Floor

A Man Always Wants Shirts

These shirts of English Broadcloth will bring pleasurable surprise to many a gift recipient on Christmas. With collar to match; rayon figured designs, $3.50.

—If He Needs
Fine Ties

Rosenberg's assortments are greater than ever before—Silk mogadorea, twills, basket weaves—in a myriad of colors and patterns, $1.00 to $3.50.

Fine Gloves
for Christmas

One can hardly have too many pairs of gloves —especially when they are so lovely as these. Of two-tone kidskin at $4.95; of capeskin at $3.25.

First Floor

"Pottery by Haeger"

An unusual glazed pottery vase in blue. One of the attractive pieces by Haeger, at $3.00.

Third Floor

Pigskin Gloves
Are in Vogue

He will thank you for a pair of pigskin gloves —the newest and smartest thing now. At $3.45.

First Floor

ROSENBERG'S

Davis Street ~ Downtown Evanston