

Invitations Out for Xmas Affairs for Young People

Holiday Calendar for Young People Lists Five Dances

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Expressed in radio phraseology, older members of north shore society "stand by" during the holidays to allow the younger members of their families to hold the center of the social stage. While the boys and girls and young men and women in their far distant schools and colleges mark off each day until the advent of the long anticipated Christmas vacation, their relatives and friends at home are setting the days of holiday fêtes to be included in the pleasures of their homecoming.

Each recurring holiday season only emphasizes the yearly increasing popularity of the vogue in our villages of the large dance, (preceded by numerous dinners), which includes many names on its host or hostess list as well as young people from all along the north shore as its guests.

This week brings to our desk the names of several groups of hosts and hostesses and the time of their entertaining.

John W. Sheldon and Stephen W. Plowman of Glencoe, Curtis C. Tatham of Winnetka, Frank Watt, II, Ted H. Burgess, and Robert D. Sweet of Kenilworth, are entertaining with Lauren E. Bennett, Junius C. Mulvey, Elmer A. Rich, and Harry B. Wilson of Wilmette at the Kenilworth club the evening of December 21.

A dance is to be given at the Evanston Country club by a group of north shore girls, Thursday, December 22. The hostesses include Miss Mabel Anderson, Miss Jane Babcock, Miss Mary Maude Birmingham, Miss Mary Dow, Miss Doris Fraser, Miss Barbara Holden, Miss Jean Marx, Miss Pauline McCoy, Miss Katherine Roach, and Miss Helen Tuells.

The next affair to be given is a dance at the Skokie Country club, December 23, by Miss Dorcas Branson, Miss Jane Burrill, Miss Edwina Cadmus, Miss Helen Gates, Miss Janet Hall, Miss Jane Moist, Miss Jean Snell, Miss Marion Suits, and Miss Jane Wilson.

The Misses Madelon Beall, Jean Clagett, Rose Flentye, Dorothy Hartman, Elwyn Hewitt, Laura Luebke, Frances McConnell, Inez Webster, Margaret Whitsett, and Gertrude Winzenburg will be hostesses at a dance at the Kenilworth club on the evening of December 26.

Miss Phoebe Hedrick of Kenilworth, with a group of her friends at the Roycemore school, including Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Helen Lord, Miss Jeanne Faust, and Miss Elizabeth Williams, will be hostesses at the Evanston Country club Tuesday evening, December 27. Bill Donahue's well known orchestra will play for the dancing.

Invitations are also out for a dance to be given the same evening at the Evanston Woman's club by a group of boys, including James L. Alder, John P. Booth, Jr., Carl Carlson, Stephen Harwood, John H. Leach, Samuel H. Moore, Jr., Preston Read, Stoddard J. Small, Linus O. Smith, J. Dean Vail, Jr.

To Be Dinner Hostess

Miss Virginia Lamson, daughter of the W. A. Lamsons of 940 Sheridan road, will give a small dinner December 19, at her home, preceding the dance to be given by Mrs. Lawrence Howe and Mrs. Joseph Page for Miss Anna Howe and Miss Janet Page.

To Be Spring Bride

The engagement of Miss Elinor Woodward of Winnetka to Ansel McBride Kinney, son of Mrs. Alice V. Kinney of Evanston, was announced recently by Miss Woodward's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Woodward.

Miss Woodward is a graduate of the Bennett school at Millbrook, N. Y., and of Smith college and Mr. Kinney is a graduate of Harvard university in the class of 1920. The wedding will take place next April.

Fun and Frolic Promised at Xmas Party for Kiddies

On Saturday afternoon, December 17, at 2:30 o'clock, the kindergarten children of the Winnetka Congregational Sunday school will be given a Christmas party in their own kindergarten room at Community House. It is hoped that every little boy and girl of the kindergarten will be present. Mrs. K. H. Hinrichs and her assistants have planned an afternoon of fun and frolic for the children, and it is even possible that Santa Claus himself may drop in and pay a visit. "So, boys and girls of the kindergarten, be sure to come!"—the committee urges.

Club Plans Xmas Masque

A Christmas Masque, as well as Wellesley carols and music, compose the Christmas program arranged by the Chicago Wellesley club for Saturday afternoon, December 17, at the Fortnightly, 120 Bellevue place, Chicago, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. Tea will be served for members and the guests they have the privilege of inviting.

Luncheon for Debutante

Mrs. L. O. White of the Orrington hotel gave a luncheon Wednesday at the Woman's Athletic club for Miss Elizabeth Lamson and the girls who assisted at Miss Lamson's debut tea this fall. After luncheon, Miss Lamson's mother, Mrs. W. A. Lamson of 940 Sheridan road, took the party to see "Hit the Deck."

Postpones Wedding

The wedding of Miss Helen Hardenbergh to Lieut. John Sherman, which was to have taken place December 31, at the Winnetka Congregational church, has been postponed because of Miss Hardenbergh's illness.

Circle Notes

Tuesday, December 13, is the day of the next meeting of the Oak Street circle, whose members will gather at the home of Mrs. William Morse, 433 Provident avenue, at 2 o'clock, to hear a special Christmas program by Mrs. Florence Sommer. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Husar. A large attendance is desired.

The New Trier circle will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert E. Riddle, 127 Bertling lane. Mrs. Augustus F. Eason will be assistant hostess.

The Indian Hill circle will hold its next meeting Wednesday, December 14, at the home of Mrs. Howard E. Browers, 554 Orchard lane. Mrs. Frank Nelson will be the assisting hostess.

The East Elm Street circle will meet Tuesday, December 13, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Philip H. Mallen, 520 Oak street. The assisting hostesses are to be Mrs. Irving B. Eppenstein, Mrs. George E. Haskins, and Mrs. William R. Howe.

The Scott Avenue circle meets Tuesday with Mrs. F. E. Kinckley, 1204 Scott avenue. Mrs. E. E. Suffern and Mrs. A. H. Barber will be assisting hostesses.

Mrs. John Danley, 278 Scott avenue, will be hostess to the Rosewood circle next Tuesday at 2 o'clock. All members and neighbors are urged to be present.

A Christmas party will be the feature of the West Elm Street circle meeting next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Burton Atwood, Jr., 904 Elm street. Work will be started on suitcases for the girls of Judge Mary Bartelme's Juvenile court. Mrs. J. A. Humphreys is to be the assisting hostess.

The Hawthorn Lane circle will have no meeting in December. The January meeting will be held the second Tuesday of the month with Mrs. William Snyder at her new home on Woodland avenue.

The Willow Road circle will meet at the home of Mrs. S. Scott Joy, 370 Sheridan road, next Tuesday. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. G. Weil will assist the hostess.

Mrs. F. A. Lippert and Mrs. Stanley Simpson will be hostesses at Mrs. Lippert's home, 1034 Starr road, to the December meeting of the Winnetka Heights circle next Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

Plan Holiday Dances

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Street will honor their daughters at two parties to be given during the Christmas holidays at their home, 592 Sheridan road. The first party will be a dance Thursday evening, December 22, for Miss Marjorie Street. The other party, for Miss Jeanne and Miss Katharine Street, will be a tea dance December 31, from 4 to 7. Miss Jeanne and Miss Katharine will arrive home December 16, from Mount Vernon seminary, in Washington.

To Lead Dance Cotillion

Alvar Bournique will lead the cotillion at the dance to be given December 21, by Mrs. O. S. Picher of 226 Sheridan road, Glencoe, for her two children, Muriel and Stanton. The party will be held from 8:15 to 11:30, at Indian Hill club.

Invitations Are Out for the Wedding of Virginia Thompson

The invitations for the wedding of Miss Virginia Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hope Thompson, 1219 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, and Merrill Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Myers of Evanston, have been issued. The wedding will take place Saturday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock, at the bride's home. The service will be read by the Rev. Stephen Lloyd and following the service a reception will be held. Miss Thompson has chosen her sister, Isabel, as her only attendant, who will act as maid of honor. Mr. Myers will be attended by Paul Hassel of Lake Shore drive, Evanston, who is a fraternity brother of Mr. Myers.

Among the numerous parties given in honor of the bride is a hosiery shower to be given by Miss Lucille Tatham at her home at 349 Hawthorn lane, Winnetka, Saturday afternoon, December 10.

A box party was recently given at the opera by Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van Schaack of 614 Linden avenue. Their guests included Miss Virginia Thompson and her fiancé, Miss Jane Kessel, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Van Schaack.

A dinner dance was given at the Edgewater Beach hotel, last Saturday evening, by Frances Guylee of Evanston. Attending were Miss Thompson, Mr. Myers, Paul Hassel, Margaret Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Hope Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Guylee.

Affairs Begin in Honor of Glencoe Bride-Elect

Many parties are being given for Miss Mary Louise Worthington, daughter of Mrs. C. D. Worthington of 1016 Forest avenue, Glencoe, whose marriage to Alfredo Mazzarella will take place December 28. Miss Edith Bullen of Glencoe, who will be one of Miss Worthington's bridesmaids, will give a Spinners' dinner for the other attendants and a few friends, on December 22, at Skokie Country club. Miss Barbara Miller gave a luncheon and handkerchief shower yesterday at the Chicago Athletic club, and Miss Jule Lester will give a luncheon and shower on December 17, also at the Chicago Athletic club. Mrs. George Spangler and Mrs. Joseph Davis gave a tea and miscellaneous shower November 21. Miss Wilma Cresmer of Glencoe was hostess at a luncheon and linen shower on December 3, and on December 6 Miss Dorothy Joy of Winnetka gave a shower and tea for Miss Worthington.

Masonic Party for Children

Children living in Winnetka having parents who are members of Masonic orders are to be guests at a Christmas party given by Winnetka Lodge Number 1078 on the afternoon of Saturday, December 17, at 2:30 o'clock. A moving picture, a magician, and other entertainment will be offered the little guests. Santa Claus is to be there with a huge Christmas tree and every child will receive a gift. Cards are being sent out which every child is asked to fill in and return, the committee announces.

Mrs. William D. McAdams of 735 Lincoln avenue will be hostess to the Winnetka Music club next Monday at 2:45. The program will consist of a group of songs given by Mrs. George Frazer and some piano numbers by Mrs. McAdams. The rest of the time will be spent in rehearsing the Christmas carols to be sung at the Winnetka Woman's club on December 20.
