Father of C. A. Tibbals Taken by Death in East

The Rev. C. A. Tibbals, father of Charles A. Tibbals of 511 Hawthorne lane, died in Philadelphia Friday, December 2, after having been an invalid for the past three years. Mr. Tibbals was well known in Winnetka through frequent visits here. For two summers he took charge of Christ church, while the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard was on vacation. The funeral was held in Brooklyn, N. Y., and burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Had Mr. Tibbals lived until December 11, he would have been 77 years old. He was a graduate of Yale with the class of 1872. During all four years he was president of his class, and was made life chairman of the class. He was a member of Theta Xi fraternity, and was a welcome guest at their house, Franklin hall, New Haven, almost every year at the Commencement exercises. After his graduation from Yale, he attended the Union Theological seminary in New York. He entered the Episcopal ministry 53 years ago and retired from the active pastorate at the age of 70. He, however, continued to hold short charges. One of these was a mission church in South Chicago.

Mr. Tibbals is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary W. Tibbals, a daughter, Miss Kate Tibbals, and his son, C. A. Tibbals.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McConnell and their daughter, Miss Frances, recently moved from their home in Wilmette to Spruce street, Winnetka. Sunday evening Miss McConnell gave a tea at her home. Among those present were Misses Mable Anderson, Jane Babcock, Inez Webster, Clarabelle Buck, and Miss Margaret Stultz.

Mother, 2 Babes Killed by Fumes of Escaping Gas

Two short weeks of supreme happiness which came to Giuseppe Assalonne and his family upon being re-united after more than a year's separation, and that reunion in their own home which Mr. Assalonne had just purchased for them at 1476 Asbury avenue, Winnetka, was climaxed by tragedy last Saturday, when the husband and father returned to his home in the afternoon to find both his wife and their two children dead.

The three had been overcome by gas, escaping from a burner under the hot water heating tank. A pipe burst, from which the water trickled onto the flame, extinguishing it, and the mother did not detect the deadly fumes of gas which quickly filled the room.

When Assalonne returned home about 2 o'clock he found his two children, Nellie, aged 2, and Dominicia, 5½ years of age, lying on a bed, dead. The lifeless body of the mother was on the floor, in the same room.

Sergeant Harry Enault of the Winnetka police department, summoned physicians and pulmotor aid from both Wilmette and Highland Park, but efforts to restore the victims were unavailing.

Assalonne, a laborer, upon coming to this country from Italy about a year ago, had worked with the one thought in mind, of making a home here for his family and bringing them to Winnetka as soon as possible.

An inquest was held in the Lewis funeral parlors in Wilmette.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at Sacred Heart church, Hubbard Woods.

Greeley School Pupils Sell $189.59 in Seals

A total of $189.59 in Christmas seal sales have been turned over to the Chicago Tuberculosis institute by the Greeley school children. The seals were sold in a period of one school week and the campaign was handled entirely by the pupils.
