

What Santa Claus Will Bring the Little Ones

The "Dorfan" train—flashiest, speediest, longest running of them all! A powerful engine pulls three coaches filled with passengers. The engine is electrically lighted and has an electric head light. All are duco finished in a soft rich brown. Set, $27.50. The lighted station is $5 and the automatic semaphore is $5.

Betty will be proud to receive this imported French print frock for Christmas, $7.50—and the adorable little hat box covered with silk moire and decorated with hand painted designs, $4.95, and a dainty little crepe de Chine bonnet, $2.95. Every little girl will love "Teddy", he is so soft and cuddlesome, $2.95—and imported eiderdown bunny slippers at $1.45. Costumer, $2.95.

Here's fun for little girls. An electric stove that really cooks. Betty can fry an egg or bake a cake at the same time. It's complete with aluminum utensils for $12.00. Then there's "Betty" and "Rainy" and "Guesty"—three fine dolls at $5.95 each—and the chair, $2.25. Rain set, $3.95.

When little girls play "house", this is the tilt-top table they will love—and what joy if Mary Jane should get it for Christmas! It is in soft baby blue enamel and the top is hand decorated, complete set, $12.50.

Tiny artists will like this paint set with its book and funny pictures to paint, 50c. And there are hours and hours of fun in "The Old Mother Goose" book of which children are so fond, $2.00.
