Winter Camps Program

What is the general thrill in scouting? Camping, of course! What is the most adventurous kind of camping? The answer naturally is "Winter camping."

There is a great thrill when the snow is piled high outside and the logs are crackling on the fireplace and a fine gang of good scouts are gathered around you and someone is telling a story—Perhaps you are roasting apples as the wind blows around the corners of the logs outside—That's winter camp!

A group of fifteen Northshore Scouts will leave on Monday afternoon, December 26 with Mr. McPeck, headed for winter camp at Wilderness, Michigan.
