

In the Top of the Christmas Stocking—Bonds for the Family

What gift would be more welcome to members of your family than a safe bond, yielding 6 to 6½%?

It signifies your confidence in their ability to hold and manage capital. It adds to that feeling of security that makes life worth while. It means a regular income that will come in handy. Your wife, son or daughter will surely appreciate such an addition to the rainy day fund.

Quinlan & Tyson First Mortgage Bonds on stable, North Shore properties, are conservatively issued for absolute safety. The seasoned judgment of 43 years' experience, specializing in this district, merits your complete confidence. An added feature of these bonds is the constantly widening margin of security, which follows the upward trend of values in this growing community.
