'Twas the Night Before Christmas

6 Barrels and 11 Boxes
Used in Packing Gifts

Gifts brought by children of the church school of the Winnetka Congregational church last Sunday for children at the Chicago Commons were presented in such quantities that 6 barrels and 11 large boxes were required for packing the toys alone. In addition 1 large package of clothing, 1 kiddy car, 1 doll carriage and 1 rocking horse were sent to the Chicago institution to aid in making Christmas a joyful occasion for the children in

Rev. James A. Richards
Addresses Congregation

Owing to the sudden and unexpected illness of Dr. Solomon B. Freehof, members of the North Shore Congregation Israel were addressed by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church, Friday, December 16, on "Big Walls and Little Builders." Being asked at the last minute to speak, Mr. Richards used as his topic the same one he had prepared for his regular sermon the following Sunday.
