

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clark, 902 Pine street, who sailed from New York on the Berengaria recently, spent Christmas in London. They will remain in Europe for two months, partly on pleasure, partly on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Reed, 1075 Pelham road, were among other Winnetka members and guests attending the Christmas ball at the Union League club Wednesday evening. A midnight supper was served and special entertainment given.

JACK & JILL PLAYERS

Annual Christmas Party Given at Kenilworth Club Festival

North shore lovers of the little theater had interest in the appearance of the Jack and Jill players of Chicago at the annual Christmas party of the Kenilworth club Friday afternoon.

The children's company of the players presented "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The players, who are directed by Marie Agnes Foley, and who have headquarters at 943 Rush street, will revive "Little Lord Fauntleroy" for January playing and give its first performance New Year's Day.

During December, Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, the players are presenting "When the Roses Bloom Again," a comedy in three acts by Eduardo Marquina. During January the adult players will play Ibsen's "The Doll's House." During December the younger players are offering "The Great Gift," a Christmas "make-believe" by Florence Crocker Comfort, and "The Voice of the Bell," a masque of Christmas by Constance D'Arcy Mackaye.

TEACHES AT GARRETT

Dr. Horace G. Smith, pastor of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church, is to conduct a class at Garrett Biblical institute, Evanston, in his capacity as associate professor of preaching at the institute. He will begin the class next week and continue his teaching service over a period of eleven weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lucke of 394 Elder lane are giving a dinner party Friday, December 30, for their son, William, who is home for the holidays from St. John's Military academy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Butler, who have made their home at 315 Poplar street, have moved to 50 Ellicott avenue, Batavia, N. Y.

Miss Caroline Simmons of New York City is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Alexander of 1275 Scott avenue.

DORIS DOE, SOLOIST ON SYMPHONY PROGRAM

Famous Contralto to Be Heard With Little Symphony Orchestra Next Monday

Doris Doe, contralto, will be the soloist with the Little Symphony orchestra of Chicago in the third of the current season's series of concerts at New Trier auditorium under auspices of the New Trier Orchestral association. The concert is scheduled for Monday evening, January 2, at 8:15 o'clock.

Miss Doe has appeared with the New York Ontario society, the music festival in Worcester and the North Shore Music Festival in Evanston. She has been soloist with the New York Philharmonic orchestra. An eminent critic has said of her: "She uses with technical finish a voice which is beautiful in quality, full-throated and generous in volume."

Next Monday's concert program, given under direction of George Dasch, will be as follows:

The Program

- Air from Suite, D MajorBach
- BoureeBach
- Overture, "Coriolan"Beethoven
- Adagietto for Strings, from Symphony No. 5Mahler
- Allegretto Vivace (From "Roma" Suite)Bizet-Dasch
- Aria: "O Don Fatale" from the Opera, "Don Carlos"Verdi
- Miss Doe and the Orchestra
- Intermission
- Songs: (a) "Zur Ruh! Zur Ruh!" ..Wolf
- (b) "Chanson Norwegienne"Fourdrain
- (c) "Cradle Song"McFadyen
- (d) "Take Joy Home" ...Bassett
- Doris Doe
- (Robert MacDonald at the Piano)
- Slavonic Folk Song with Variations, from the Ballet, "Coppelia" ..Delibes
- "Scherzo" from "Sonata Tragica"MacDowell-Schmidt
- "Marche Hongroise" from "The Damnation of Faust"Berlioz

CONVOCATION PREACHER

Rev. James A. Richards was the preacher last Tuesday evening at the annual convocation of Congregational ministers of Illinois at Knox college, Galesburg, Ill.

PETERS SELLS NONE BUT THE BEST!

When you are expecting guests for dinner, you want to be sure that every item on the menu shall be absolutely beyond reproach. You want to be sure that your guests will rise from the table not only satisfied but delighted by the quality of your offering. Buy your meats at Peters'.

Peters' Market

Meats of Quality

734 Elm Street

Phones 920-21-22

"Time to Retire"

Start the New Year right—Use Fisk tires. The new heavy cord gives more miles per dollar and more comfort in riding. Fisk tires and Richardson service are above par.

A New Chevrolet will be on display after January 1st. See it here.

RICHARDSON'S GARAGE
724 Elm Street
Tel. 25