N. U. in Triangle Debate on Baumes Laws of N. Y.

Northwestern debaters will meet the University of Michigan and Ohio State teams in a triangular debate Jan. 20 on the question: "Resolved—That the principles of the Baumes laws of New York state should be enacted into law by the other states."

Men composing the negative team will journey to Ann Arbor to debate with the Michigan team, while the affirmative team remains here to meet Ohio state. Members of the negative team are John Doesburg, Julian M. Lambert and Samuel Givens, and the affirmative team is being chosen this week in trial debates with Knox college.

Mrs. Clena Friend, 410 Washington avenue, Wilmette, entertained the North Shore Johanna committee yesterday at luncheon.

To Wed Coach

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Hilton to Ade Schumacher was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hilton of the Georgian hotel, at a bridge party given in her honor last week. Mr. Schumacher is the intramural sport director at Northwestern university.

Next Brewer-Spry
 Recital Jan. 19,
 at Winnetka Club

Patronesses for the second in the series of historical recitals to be presented at the Winnetka Woman's club, January 19, are: Mrs. Marcus D. Richards, Mrs. Rudolph Matz, Mrs. Fletcher Marsh, Mrs. Morris K. Wilson, Mrs. Wheaton Augur, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mrs. Roland Whitman, Mrs. Erskin Wilder, Mrs. J. Lawrence Hough-teling, Mrs. August Magnus, Mrs. Henry Stanton, Mrs. Harry Edmonds and Mrs. Gerald Butler, all of Winnetka.

The program will be presented jointly by two well known north shore artists, Walter Spry, Evanston pianist, and Valona Brewer, Winnetka violinist. Both are members of the faculty of the Columbia School of Music.

The first program, given on December 8, was devoted to the early composers, from the Elizabethan era to Beethoven. The coming recital will represent composers of the 19th century. Mr. Spry will open the program with numbers by Schubert, Mendelssohn and Schumann; Mrs. Brewer will follow with Caesar Franck's sonata for violin and piano; and Mr. Spry will close the evening with a Chopin group. Merle E. Maupin will act as accompanist for Mrs. Brewer.

WELFARE BOARD TO MEET

The Winnetka board of Infant Welfare society will hold its annual meeting on Monday, January 16, at the home of Mrs. Dwight F. Green, 329 Chestnut street. At this meeting reports for the year will be given by the various committees, showing the accomplishments of the board during the past year, and the election of officers will be held. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Smith of 819 Humboldt gave a dinner bridge last Saturday evening at their home. They entertained twelve guests.
