"Fair Co-ed" and "Shanghai Bound" at Village Theater

The Village theater has booked "Out All Night," "Swim, Girl, Swim," "The Fair Co-ed" and "Shanghai Bound" as the program for the coming week.

"Out All Night," the picture to be shown on Monday and Tuesday, is a Reginald Denny comedy. It is a fascinating little picture with numerous unusual quirks and humorous situations.

Bebe Daniels

The University of California in Los Angeles provides the setting for Bebe Daniels' vehicle, "Swim, Girl, Swim," to be at the Village Wednesday. It was selected by Paramount officials after the personal request of Miss Daniels that she be allowed to make the production on that campus.

Just one year ago the star selected the University of California as the location for the making of "The Campus Flirt" and spent three weeks on the campus at Berkeley.

Members of the cast in support of Miss Daniels in "Swim, Girl, Swim" are James Hall, Josephine Dunn and William Austin. Clarence Badger directed.

Poor Professor

For the peace of mind of college professors it is a good thing that Marion Davies is a co-ed only on the screen.

This charming actress proves her ability for being a thorn in the side of college faculties by her work in "The Fair Co-ed," her latest starring production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which is billed for Thursday and Friday.

Johnny Mack Brown has the leading male role in this story of modern college life from a feminine angle.

Clever, These Chinese

Riots and bloodshed, piracy and hand-to-hand fighting, adventure and romance are ingredients of Richard Dix' newest Paramount starring picture "Shanghai Bound," which is playing Saturday only. It's laid along the Yangste river, the section that has kept China on the front pages of the nation's newspapers for many months. Dix is cast as captain of a river steamer, with Mary Brian playing the American heiress he brings down the river to safety. Luther Reed directed.

FIRST YACHTING CAP

Richard Dix has played in many pictures but he never wore a yachting cap until his newest Paramount starring vehicle, "Shanghai Bound."

But he isn't a yachtsman. He is cast as Jim Bucklin, captain of an ancient Chinese river steamer operating up the Yangste from Shanghai.
