

TO FINISH M'CORMICK LIGHTS THIS SPRING

Sanitary Board Appropriates for Bridges, Landscaping in Evanston Area

Improvements of the North Shore channel allowed for in the budget announced a week ago by P. J. Crowe, president of the Sanitary district, include the landscaping of the canal banks, the completion of the installation of the McCormick road lighting system and the erection of bridges as the items which will be direct improvements of the canal section between Howard street and Lake Michigan.

Of the more than one million dollars appropriated for these items, the exact amount which will be allowed for improvements of the Evanston section of the channel has not been specified. "The extent of the work in Evanston depends on what the city of Chicago does," states John T. Miller, district engineer. If Chicago widens Lincoln avenue, a new bridge will be built for that road, and the amount available for Evanston's section will be lessened. However, erection of new bridges at Oakton street and Dempster street are before the trustees, states Mr. Miller. Devon avenue is another of the 5 or 6 crossings for which bridges are being considered. For bridges, $400,000 was appropriated in the budget.

Installation of the McCormick road lights will be completed early this spring. For the work remaining to be done $550,000 was appropriated. Thousand candle power units are being used, erected on concrete lamp standards placed opposite each other and having 100-foot centers.

For the landscaping of the west banks of the channel $150,000 was allowed in the budget.
