Frank Fultons Leaving for Sojourn in Florida

Mrs. Frank D. Fulton, 884 Hill road, returned home last Saturday after undergoing a major operation at the Augustana hospital, where she had been since early in December. She and Mr. Fulton and their daughter, Helen, accompanied by Mrs. Fulton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Simmons of Eagle Grove, Iowa, are leaving for Florida.

They will spend a week or two at the Miami Biltmore, Coral Gables, and will take a cottage for the remainder of their stay. Mr. Fulton will spend three or four weeks and Mrs. Fulton and Helen will remain the rest of the season. Edmund Fulton has returned to complete his freshman year at Wabash college.

CHOIR CONCERT WEDNESDAY

A musical entertainment will be given by the Edgewater Covenant church choir on behalf of the Christian Fellowship church of Winnetka, on Wednesday, February 8, at 8 o'clock, at the Parish House, on Oak and Linden streets, Winnetka. Professor Earnest, head of the North Park college musical department, is the director of the choir.

"The Power to Become," Sermon by M. E. Pastor

At the 11 o'clock service of worship at the North Shore Methodist church, Glencoe, the Rev. Harold C. Case will preach on the subject, "The Power to Become." "Applying psychology and the other human studies to the understanding of man," asks Mr. Case, "is it possible to look toward the time when he may become more complete? Can we reasonably expect that he will improve? How can religion combine with science to aid in development?"

There will also be a pulpit editorial: "The Import of the Reply of the Pope to the Advocates of Religious Union."

Mrs. William R. Schuster, organist, will play "Dreams," by Wagner, and "The Nuns' Song," by Lesebure Wely.

DEDICATE CHURCH ORGAN

The organ at Christ church, installed three years ago, and on which the final payment has been made by the church, will be formally dedicated at the services Sunday morning, January 22, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Fisher announce the birth of a son, Gerard Henderson Fisher, at their home, 1051 Cherry street, on Saturday, January 14.

Dr. C. W. Gilkey to Speak Before Sunday Eve Club

The speaker at the Glencoe Sunday Evening club of Glencoe, January 22, will be Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, minister of Hyde Park Baptist church of Chicago, and professor in the University of Chicago. Dr. Gilkey recently spoke before the Chicago Sunday Evening club and is one of the most popular platform orators in the country.

Dr. Gilkey delivered the famous Barrows lectures in India in 1923. He made a profound impression on the thought life of that oriental country and the other countries of the far East. The series of lectures have since been put into book form under the title: "Jesus and This Generation." He also delivered the Cole lectures before Vanderbilt university recently. These lectures are published under the title, "Present-Day Dilemmas in Religion."

Having traveled widely and observed wisely, Dr. Gilkey brings a rich experience to his audience. He is an excellent scholar and masterful speaker. The subject of his address before the Glencoe Sunday Evening club will be, "Jesus as a World Figure."

Mrs. William R. Schuster will offer an organ recital beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Betty Huston Herlocker, soloist, will sing.

This service will be held in the North Shore Methodist church, corner Hazel and Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe.
