

35 Youngsters Have Parts in 2 Plays at Children's Theater

Thirty-five children players will appear in "Dick Whittington" and "The Three Spinners," when the second of the Children's theater productions opens at the Haven school theater, Evanston, February 4.

Never before has the Children's theater presented so many children in one cast.

Miller school is the first school to be chosen to do an entire play. A cast of 25, under the direction of Miss Evelyn Brown, will present "Dick Whittington," a pantomime of the old story. The characters include, besides Dick, the good cat, Phoebe, Mr. Fitzwarren and his kind daughter Alice, Cicely, their cross cook, Captain Brown and his jolly sailors, King Moo Moo and his Queen, the rats who plagued the land, the screen shifters, and the children who tell and hear the story.

The adult parts for the other play, "The Three Spinners," are cast from Thalian Dramatic club of the School of Speech, and the children's parts from upper and lower Haven. Several of these characters are tiny tots, the youngest who have ever appeared in a Children's theater play. The play itself is a charming fairy tale in three short acts.

The Haven school and orchestra, under the direction of B. F. Stuber, will play at all four performances of Feb. 4 and 11.

One last opportunity will be given at the various schools to buy season tickets which enable children to see the plays at exactly half the regular rate.

Purple Track Men Face Notre Dame Saturday

Northwestern and Notre Dame will again meet in athletic rivalry Saturday, January 21, when Coach Frank Hill takes his track squad to South Bend for a dual meet with the Irish. It will be the first track meet of the season for both teams.

Last year the Purple speed artists trounced Notre Dame by a score of 46 to 39 in a meet which was not decided until the running of the relay, the last event on the program. The Irish are expected to stage a valiant attempt to even up matters and at the same time atone in part for the recent basketball drubbing which the Purple administered to Coach Keagan's basketball proteges.

For want of a nail, according to history, a battle was lost. For want of a few middledistance runners to back up a superlative group of field men, many a track team has met with adversity. In some respects this is the situation which faces the Purple this year. Out of nine letter men on the squad, six are field men and of the remaining three only one is a middle distance performer.

Stamp and Coin Club Popular at New Trier

The Stamp and Coin club of New Trier High school met Tuesday, January 17. The club, popular from its start, has a large membership. Packets of stamps are distributed among the members at the meetings following their donations, and lectures are given on topics of interest to the members. Several magazines on stamps and coins are available in the school library. The club was founded by students interested in stamps and coins, their study, and their collection.

"The Road to Romance," a picture of the good old swashbuckling buccaneer days when pirates and "pieces of eight," "Long Toms" and "John Silvers" held forth, will be presented at the Glencoe Union church next Friday. Roman Navarro is the featured player.
