

IN CHARGE OF CENTRE

Miss Christine Heinig, 782 Center street, who until the first of the new year was studying at the University of Chicago, now is in charge of the Washington Child Research centre, which is supervised by the government and the McCormick foundation. This is a new department of education just recently created at Washington, it is announced. Miss Heinig is considered quite an authority on the subject of child research.

Bar Associations Pay Tribute to Judge Batten

Funeral services for former Judge John H. Batten, father of Ralph E. Batten, 833 Foxdale avenue, Winnetka, and brother of George F. Batten, 1039 Spruce street, Winnetka, were held Saturday, January 21, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Chicago. Mr. Batten died Thursday evening at his home in the Hyde Park hotel, after a long illness. He was 77 years old. Attending the funeral were committees representing the Chicago Bar association and the Hamilton club, of which Judge Batten was a former president.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weinstock, 1323 Asbury avenue, entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jaedecke of Winnetka.

Black and White Hockey Team Wins Over Invaders

The Winnetka Black & White hockey team came out victorious in their game against the Green Dragons last Sunday at the Indian Hill Rink by the score of 5-4. Although the locals were handicapped by the absence of their scoring ace and star, George Rudolph, who was down South enjoying the week end, the fans will get an opportunity to see him in action tomorrow. Both teams were on equal terms throughout most of the game except in the second period when the Black and Whites held an advantage of two goals. This margin was short lived, however, as the Green Dragons with a strong wind at their backs and fighting like wild cats, managed to tie the score, 4 to 4, with but two minutes to play. With only a minute to play a pass from Belmont to Flynn to Abbott scored the final point and proved to be the winning point for the Blacks and Whites. The cold spell afforded real hockey weather and spice that kept the players going all the time. When they were not fighting for the puck they were sprawled over the ice, convalescing from some jolt administered by an opposing player.

The probable line-up for this Sunday's contest will be Belmont, Flynn, Rudolph, Abbott, Runnfeldt, and Ball.

Mrs. W. F. Groene, 1432 Scott avenue, entertained a number of friends at luncheon and bridge Tuesday last.

Baird and Warner Announce Recent Realty Transfers

The Evanston office of Baird and Warner, Inc., announce recent real estate deals as follows:

Crane company recently negotiated a twenty-five year lease on the property they now occupy on Emerson street, Evanston, in addition to the vacant on the east. James Wigginton is the owner of the premises, which has a 24 foot roadway connection to Ridge avenue. The north shore business of this branch of Crane company has justified their drawing plans for considerable improvement of this property. George H. Mulford of the Evanston office of Baird and Warner, Inc., represented both parties in the transaction.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry of Memphis, Tenn., has purchased from Murray & Sinclair a beautiful ten-room French Chateau home which was just completed, in Deere Park. The size of the lot is 115 ft. by 163 ft. This home is located in one of the north shore's most beautiful subdivisions. Deere Park, formerly the Lichstern estate, was subdivided by Baird and Warner, Inc., in 1925, and has rapidly become recognized as among the choicest of residential properties. It lies in the extreme southwest corner of Highland Park. A. K. Smith and S. B. Matthews, of Baird and Warner, Inc., acted as brokers.

A syndicate controlling the neighboring property recently purchased ten lots on Locust road in Winnetka. These lots also adjoin the Indian Hill Golf club grounds. By the syndicate's taking over this property, all the vacant in this neighborhood will be highly restricted. George H. Mulford of the Evanston office of Baird and Warner, Inc., acted as broker.

Edward Decker has sold to Maurice Vandenbrook, a lot on Central Park avenue, Evanston, 90 ft. by 150 ft. S. B. Matthews, of Baird and Warner, Inc., was the broker.

RETURNS SOON FROM HUNT

Harry Vissering of Kenilworth, who was a member of the Getz party on its recent African hunt, will soon be in Kenilworth with an interesting story of his varied experiences. A recent article in the Chicago Tribune gave quite a lengthy report given by Mr. Getz to a correspondent of this newspaper, which told of some very dangerous and hazardous escapades in the African wilds.
