

“Have You Noticed the Number of Burglaries Lately”

JUST follow the papers for a week and check up. Cold weather always brings them, but this year there seems to be more burglaries than usual.

It's not really safe to leave your valuables unguarded for even a few hours. One never knows whether they'll be there when you get back or not. And some things—jewelry, keepsakes, etc., are irreplaceable.

Why leave anything unguarded? The vaults of this bank offer protection that is positive. It's the best burglar and worry insurance you can buy.

Stop in—and see how great are our provisions for the safety of your keepsakes and documents, and how little this kind of safety costs.
