Munzer Trio Maintains its Lofty Reputation

The recital given last Sunday afternoon, January 29, in Kenilworth Assembly hall by the Muenzer String Trio was fully up to expectation. Mr. Muenzer, leader and violinist, and his colleagues, Mr. Koelbel, cellist, and Mr. Wagner, pianist, presented the exacting program with surprising skill and finish. The numbers included a trio by Beethoven, a Fantasie by Ireland, and a Quartet by Brahms.

WIN OVER OAK PARK

New Trier Cagers Rip Through Invaders' Defense in Both Divisions; Lights Win 22-21; Heavies 42-30

By Hal Burnett

New Trier cagers branded the theory that "a good offense is the best defense" as a fallacy last Friday night by trouncing both invading Oak Park teams when they attempted to apply the rule in actual play. The score in the heavyweight tilt was 42 to 30 while the lightweight game ended 22 to 21. Oak Park presented a very strong attack in both games but had a weak defense to back it up.

Bramhall, Oak Park scoring star, had no chance whatsoever against Markley and Plowman, credited by cage fans and officials with being the strongest defense men in the old suburban league. For the first time this season the scoring was evenly divided, Sheldon making 5 baskets, Nelson 4, Markley 5 and Miller 3. "Chick" Markley played the best game of his career, not only preventing Bramhall from scoring but taking the ball away from this Oak Park star and dribbling down to make five baskets almost single handed. Capt. Johnny Sheldon was also in the limelight and with a seeming "dead-eye" for baskets rained in 5, coming within four goals of equaling his record of nine for one game. Throughout the season he has been in for marked attention from opposing players but managed to break loose Friday night and took an active part in New Trier scoring.

The lightweight game was the closest struggle witnessed on the home floor this season. "Dame Fortune" passed favoritism from one side to the other throughout the tilt and first New Trier then Oak Park took the lead. In the last minute of play, however, George Saxon looped a "counter" and the game ended with New Trier on the winning side of the score.

In the last quarter Oak Park had a six point lead and started to stall. New Trier plunged into a strenuous offensive, however, and Thorsen broke the ball away from the invaders again and again, passing to Smith or Nord who made long shots for baskets.

The Grey and Green will meet Evanston next Friday in an endeavor to avenge the 13 to 9 defeat inflicted by the Evanston feather five about two weeks ago.
