Haddon Club Arrives
The Haddon Hunt and Hurdle named for Col. W. C. Haddon the officer of the 84th division Army. The club is developing a 350 acre tract on both sides of the Fox River, about two miles north of Libertyville.
Architect Charles D. Faulkner has designed a group of buildings which we believe will with standing of the land in the area, just take a peak at the plan in the adjoining columns and you'll see why.
Twenty Acres Polo Field
The bank call for a twenty acre tract in this fine area, for the shooting, an excellent amount for match play. Center an eighteen hole golf course and tennis facilities.
The bank's proposition. The club will house ninety-five to one hundred club building, dining hall, bar, bath, etc. with a 2000 ft. main house, see the main lounge and bathroom to 1925 and over two stories high, designed after the manner of English baronial ballroom.
The line will be finished by the club members in a few weeks.
