

Quinlan and Tyson Report Many Sales of Property on N. S.

Quinlan & Tyson, Inc., announce the closing of the following sales:

Minnie Johnson sold to Ruth E. Erickson the vacant property 25x130 on the east side of Central Park avenue between Park place and Isabella street. R. H. Peterson of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

Chicago Title & Trust Co., trustee, sold to R. H. and Edith Peterson the 8 room brick home at 749 Grove street, Glencoe, on a lot 175x210. C. A. Gurshin of the Winnetka office represented all parties.

John and Sarah B. Riceton sold to Charles and Wanda Weber the property 50x140 at the northeast corner of Simpson street and Wesley avenue, Evanston, J. W. Corcoran of the Evanston office was the broker.

George F. Gonsalves and Clifford Shoppbell sold to Craig P. and Frances Hazelot the 6-room clapboard house on a lot 50x189 at 370 Winnetka avenue, Winnetka. F. M. Orndorff of the Winnetka office was the broker.

Charles and Marie L. Johnson sold to Edward and Alice Lawton the vacant property 50x170 at the northwest corner of Grey avenue and Foster street. R. H. Peterson of the Evanston office and J. S. Turner were the brokers.

Emma V. Lane sold to O. H. and Margaret B. Armstrong the 6-room shingle bungalow on a lot 53x180 at 2328 Hartray avenue, Evanston. O. H. Armstrong of the Evanston office represented all parties.

State Bank and Trust Co., trustee, sold to Emma Gamron 5 acres adjoining the Skokie Valley line west of Glencoe. L. T. Dodds of the Winnetka office represented the sellers and Walter P. Smith represented the purchasers.

B. F. and Charlotte H. Rieman sold to Craig B. Hazelwood the vacant property 80x142 on the north side of Ingleside Park 100 feet east of Sheridan road. Mr. Hazelwood is vice president of the Crane Trust Co., and will build a home on the property in the near future. Robert S. Crane of the Evanston office represented the purchaser and Hokanson & Jenks the sellers.

State Bank and Trust Co., trustee, sold to W. C. MacFarlane 10 acres on Waukegan road, near Winnetka avenue. Mr. MacFarlane bought the property for an investment. Lewis T. Dodds of the Winnetka office represented all parties.

DISAPPEARING STAIRWAYS

It is a comfort to remember, now that winter is here and one needs all the space possible in the house, that disappearing stairways form a quick connecting link between the home proper and the attic. And one has another room—inexpensive and with little effort of installation.

Lester F. Ball Purchases 50 Foot Lot on Eighteenth

Sale of a 50 by 243 foot lot on Eighteenth street south of Wilmette avenue is reported by Kroll and Smith of Fourth street, Wilmette. The buyer was Lester F. Ball and the seller Andrew J. Thorp. This is an east front, hillside lot. The consideration is not disclosed. George Kroll acted for the buyer while Jack Budinger represented the seller.

INVEST IN REALTY LOANS

Approximately 44 per cent of the total assets of the principal insurance companies of the country are invested in mortgage loans, according to a recent survey made by the research department of Greenebaum Sons' Investment company. About 20 per cent of their assets are in railroad securities, 12 per cent in loans on insurance policies, 8 per cent in government bonds, and 8 per cent in public utilities. The remaining 8 per cent is invested in miscellaneous securities.
