HEAR HORACE BRIDGES

Wilmette Sunday Evening Club Se-cures Famous Lecturer for Meeting February 5; Quartet to Sing

Dr. Horace Bridges, well known author and lecturer, will speak before the Wilmette Sunday Evening club on "The Life of Dickens" Sunday, February 5. This will be a most timely address inasmuch as Dickens' birthday anniversary comes on Febru-ary 7. The music of the evening will be furnished by the Chicago Treble Clef quartet from the Apollo club.

Dr. Bridges was born in England, his early education being in St. John's school, Kensington, London. He later studied at Cator Street school, and still later took special courses in Lon-don university. While in London he was associate leader with Stanton Coit of the West London Ethical society from 1905 to 1912. He has been the leader of the Chicago Ethical society since April, 1913.

Dr. Bridges has been president of Booth House Social settlement; Ur-ban league, Chicago; member of the Unitarian Fellowship, and vice presi-dent of the Chicago chapter of the English Speaking Union. He was editor of "The Ethical Movement—Its Principles and Aims," in 1911; with second edition in 1912; also of "Eras-mus in Praise of Folly," in 1925.

He is the author of "Criticism of Life—Studies in Faith, Hope and Despair," "The Religion of Experi-ence," "Our Fellow Shakespeare," "On Becoming an American," "As I Was Saying," "The God of Fundamental-ism and Other Studies."

Dr. Bridges has been an occasional lecturer in extension courses at the University of Chicago, Columbia uni-versity, Brooklyn Institute, Philadel-phia University Extension society and Philadelphia Forum.
