ORDER

Nowhere is order more important than in the management of funeral services. Here the slightest mishap or delay takes on serious proportions and lays an added burden on hearts already heavy.

Our personnel is selected and trained with this idea in view. Every man holds his job because he knows his work and can do it readily, smoothly and efficiently.

It is to this intangible quality in our service, we believe, that we owe a considerable part of the confidence placed in our organization.

Correcting an Ancient Error

Certain names always awaken prejudices. In the olden times, the word "Mangle" was a prejudice against laundries. The name is really a misnomer. Visit our laundry and you will look in vain for any such device as a "Mangle." It doesn't exist, for the name is but the unwelcome survivor of a time that is past . . . something like the superstition that "thirteen" is unlucky, and that passing under a ladder is a harbinger of ill fortune.

Our ironing . . . the ironing that gives such an attractive and dainty finish to your linens . . . is all done by special presses and flat work ironers. Each is an improvement over the ironing methods of other days, for there is no rubbing and none of the excessive heat that scorches.

Our Washing Methods, too, are Similarly Modern
