Dorothy Foresman Weds in Chicago Next Wednesday

Miss Dorothy Foresman has chosen Wednesday, February 15, as the day for her marriage to Warren McCracken, of Barrington and Chicago. The service, which will be witnessed by just the members of the families most interested, will be read at four o'clock in the afternoon in the chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, the Reverend Herbert Willett of the Kenilworth Union church, officiating. A small reception at the new apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kenyon (formerly Emily Foresman, twin sister of the bride) on Superior street, Chicago, will be held immediately following the church service, and the honeymoon trip will take the couple to the South Seas, Nassau, and the Bermuda Islands.

On their return in March, they will go immediately to their new home in Barrington, which is now almost completely furnished and ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Harry Weese, Kenilworth avenue, entertained her bridge club at luncheon last Friday. The members of this club are Mrs. George Benson, Mrs. Jule Peterson, Mrs. Walter Knoop, Mrs. Burt Crowe, Mrs. Craig Ketcham, Mrs. Clyde Ross, Mrs. John Rathbone, and Mrs. Weese. The next meeting will be on February 17, at the home of Mrs. Knoop on Warwick road.
