Andrew Lynn, Pioneer Resident, Dies Tuesday

Andrew Lynn, father of Harry Lynn, proprietor of the Kenilworth Grocery store, passed away at the home of his son with whom he has been residing, last Tuesday at the advanced age of 89 years. Funeral services were conducted from the residence, 635 Pleasant avenue, Kenilworth, on Thursday, Rev. Herman W. Meyer of St. John's Lutheran church of Wilmette, presiding. Burial was at the County Line cemetery near Brae-side.

Mr. Lynn came originally from Sweden. He had lived on the north shore for more than 55 years, and for several years had resided in Hubbard Woods. He came to Chicago some-time previous to the Chicago Fire and was working in the city at the time of the great conflagration. He is survived only by the one son, eight other children having preceded him in death.

N. E. Mothers to Hear Child Training Talks

Two lectures on child training are planned for the near future by the child study groups of the North Evanston Mothers' club to be given at their meetings by Anne George Millar, authority on the subject. The first on "The Development of Creative Imagination" will be given Monday, Feb. 27, and the second on "The Importance of Art in Child Education" is scheduled for March 5.

Mrs. Millar is the translator of the Montessori book, the work describing the system of the Italian educator. Mrs. Millar studied under Montessori at one time in Italy and later opened a Montessori school in Washington.

Dr. Herman Bundesen to Talk to N. T. Students

Dr. Herman Bundesen, formerly Health Commissioner of the City of Chicago and now associated with the Sanitary District, will address students of New Trier High school during the assembly hour on Friday, February 17. Dr. Bundesen will talk on "Health."

The members of the Skipper club will hold a meeting next Tuesday to make arrangements for membership and the initiation of new members. Out of a number of applications three will be selected. The president will select these three and the members will vote on them. All members are urged to be present by Virginia Fitzhugh, who is publicity chairman.

Mrs. Coram Tom Davis and her daughter, Dorothy, 132 Bertling lane, left Winnetka last Sunday for a month's stay at Miami Beach, Fla.

CHARITY MASK BALL ATTRACTS INTEREST

Winnetka Young People Plan
Attractive Social Event for Evening of February 18

The ticket sale for the Charity Masked ball, which the Young People's club of the Winnetka Congregational church is to give Saturday, February 18, is now well launched. The ball is to be given in Matz hall, Community House, at 9 o'clock in the evening. All of the young people of high school age are showing a keen interest in the preparations that are being made for this gay and colorful dance. It will be the last formal entertainment before Lent, and it is expected that Matz hall will be filled with a large and enthusiastic throng of merry-makers. There is nothing that appeals more to the imagination of young people than the opportunity of dressing up in costume, and the fact that everyone must come masked and remain masked until the end of the fourth dance lends an enchanting air of mystery and romance to the ball. The possibility of dancing to lively music, in a colorful setting, with some fair unknown, is a delightful one.

Outstanding Social Event

No trouble or expense is being spared to make this the outstanding event of the social season. Jack Russell's "Kentuckians," a jazz orchestra in high favor with the young people of the north shore, has been engaged for the evening. This orchestra has played over the radio and is well known by those who love to dance.

The ticket sale is in charge of a committee headed by Martin Cassell, who may be reached at Winnetka 1313. Tickets may also be bought from a large number of New Trier students.

Prominent Patronesses

The following prominent women have kindly consented to act as patronesses: Mesdames Edward A. Anderson, Norman K. Anderson, Enos W. Barton, Frederick W. Burlingham, Francis Case, Martin Cassell, F. E. Clerk, Homer E. Cotton, Harry Craig, Frank Crawford, Leslie Craven, A. W. Cushman, Hamilton Daughaday, J. W. F. Davies, Arthur Dean, Frederick Dickinson, C. J. Easterberg, James O. Ely, Frank F. Ferry, A. Montague Ferry, James Fleming, William G. Forrest, D. K. French, A. Homer Goodhue, Thomas A. Goodwin, George Gordon, Mildred C. Hughes, Charles Karnopp, David Lasier, J. C. Marshall, Rudolph Matz, Thomas L. McLaren, Taliaferro Milton, D. K. Morrison, Carroll Dean Murphy, Mortimer Parker, James A. Richards, Wallace Rumsey, Eugene Rummier, Louis A. Sherman, Charles Simpson, L. A. Stoddard, E. E. Stults, William G. Taylor, Charles M. Thomson, William Wested, James A. White, Ira J. Wilson, and Miss Ruth Matz.

Mr. and Mrs. Hope Thompson, 1219 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, expect to travel east sometime within the next week. After spending several weeks on the Atlantic coast, they will probably go to Florida. They expect to return to the north shore in about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. M. Cole, 315 Essex road, Kenilworth, are at home after a week's stay in northern Michigan.
