

Election Drama to be Staged at New Trier Hall

Citizens of the north shore interested in better government are invited to witness a dramatic sketch entitled "A Day at the Polls," to be staged in the New Trier High school auditorium Tuesday evening, February 14, at 8 o'clock. The program is given under the auspices of the Social Science department at the high school.

County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki will open the evening's program with an address introductory to the presentation of the sketch, which will include in its cast of characters twenty-five men and women from the election commissioner's offices.

The dramatic sketch will depict a typical day in a Chicago polling place, emphasizing humorous as well as serious incidents attendant upon the exercise of the franchise in a large city.

ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Dr. J. W. F. Davies, director of Community House activities, spoke before the juniors at New Trier high school at their assembly Wednesday morning, advising them on the choice of a college and a vocation.

DINNER HOSTS AT CLUB

A number of Winnetka people are having large parties of guests at the Indian Hill dinner-dance this evening. Mrs. H. C. Edmonds will have thirty in her party, Mrs. Henry A. Gardner will have sixteen and Mrs. R. H. Hobart will have ten.

Dr. C. W. Dygert of Lansing, Mich., was the guest last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. William Carey of 883 Oak street.

ON BUYING TOUR

Miss Grace Herbst is leaving Sunday on one of her frequent personal buying trips to the New York market and very soon will have on display in her Gift Shop, 563 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, the very latest offerings in furniture, gifts and interior decorations.

Mrs. Roy L. Arey, 929 Tower road, will be hostess to a number of friends Tuesday, February 14, at luncheon and bridge, in celebration of St. Valentine's day.

Miss Isabel Rohrig of Ludington, Mich., arrived Tuesday morning for a long visit with her cousins, the Misses Kathryn and Anna Rohrig of 1069 Chatfield road.

Men's Class Will Hear of Great Baha'i Temple

At the meeting of the Men's Class of the Winnetka Congregational Church Sunday school, Albert Vail will speak on Sunday next on "The Purposes and Ideals of the Baha'i Temple."

The class meets at 9:30 a. m. in the American Legion room of the community House.

An invitation is extended to the Women's class to join in the service.

Mr. Vail will continue his address on February 19. A general invitation to all those interested is extended.

Submit Plans Soon for Center Street Widening

It is expected that the engineer's estimate on the Center street improvement will be ready for submission to the Winnetka Village council at its next meeting, February 21.

The council last Tuesday evening considered informally certain questions pertaining to the plans, raised by Engineer Frank A. Windes, and it was announced that his report will be ready for the next meeting.

GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Helen Lydia Pflugsten entertained a group of her classmates and friends at a Valentine party Tuesday at her home, 968 Elm street. She is the 8-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pflugsten. The guests present were: Ruth Clark, Jane Kassner, Sylvia Andersen, Jackie Easterberg, Susan Duncan, Nancy Walpole, Jeanette Korsgran, Evelyn Loco, Buddy Easterberg, Betty Wilcox, Martha Jean Karnopf, and Phyllis Ann Gram-bly.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Withers of 788 Lincoln avenue returned Monday from California, where they had passed about a month.

Death Claims Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Roberts

Phyllis Marylouise Roberts, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Roberts of 651 Glendale avenue, died Sunday night after an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were held on Thursday at Hebblethwaite's chapel in Evanston, and burial was at Rosehill. The Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church conducted the services. Phyllis, who was a student at Horace Mann school, is survived only by her parents.

GOODMAN THEATRE

An Ibsen revival took place at the Goodman Memorial theatre, Chicago, Tuesday evening, February 7. The play presented was "The Wild Duck," directed by Whitford Kane and acted by the Repertory company assisted by some experienced and capable newcomers. Roman Bohnen appeared as Gregers Werle whose well intentioned but unfortunate interference destroys the peace of mind and happiness of his boyhood friend, Hialmar Ekdal, acted by John Waller. Dorothy Raymond was splendid as Gina, Ekdal's wife and Katherine Krug played Hedvig, their daughter, charmingly.

Robert O. Johnson

Mrs. William Boyden of 725 Pine street leaves tomorrow for the East for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Francis P. Magoun, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass. She will bring Mrs. Magoun back with her, to be matron of honor at Miss Rachel Foster's wedding March 3.

Mrs. S. Roe of Pasadena, mother of Mrs. Sidney Gerrard, 610 Rosewood avenue, who has been visiting her daughter for the past several months, has returned to her home for the remainder of the winter.

Slip Away from Dullness for a Week or Two—

A VACATION now at Hacienda De Los Cerros will break a dull winter routine with the freshness of breezes that sweep across a hundred miles of open space. This modern Ranch Resort, once the old Spanish estate of "The Hills," nestles at the mouth of a winding canyon, just two miles from the city of Santa Fe, New Mexico. Here February is a long delight, with roaring open fires to warm the crisp mountain nights and with sunny, cloudless, mild-tempered days to take you out of doors. Real Western horses to ride and mountain trails to explore, Indians and Mexicans and cowboys to watch and wonder at, and complete comfort for rest or relaxation.
