"PRAYER SENSIBLE?"—SERMON

Parents Hear Lecture on "Co-educational" Schools

At a joint meeting of the parents of the ninth and tenth grades of the North Shore Country Day school last week, Headmaster Perry Dunlap Smith gave a talk on co-education, basing his remarks on "Interest in Co-education in Europe."

At the Locarno conference last summer, co-education was one of the topics arousing great interest and discussion and many of the progressive schools of Europe are working out experiments in that type of education.

Mr. Smith referred particularly to an address by Dr. Geheeb, of the Odenwald school in Germany, who considered "the principle of equality between the sexes the chief pedagogical question of this time."

DISCONTINUE SUNDAY CLASS

The Young Men's class of the Winnetka Congregational church has voted to discontinue its sessions this Sunday morning and hereafter meet with the Men's class in the Legion room at 9:30 o'clock. The plan, however, is to get together as a group occasionally for bowling or baseball.

Mrs. W. Z. Merriman and her daughter, Miss Elsa Merriman, of Reading, Pa., were guests of Mrs. Charles Aspenwall of 1195 Tower road for the last three weeks. They left on Tuesday February 14, for Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Merriman is the daughter of Mrs. Aspenwall.
