

Jane Addams Honor Guest at National College Tea

Miss Jane Addams was the guest of honor at a tea given in Harrison hall on Monday afternoon, February 13, by President Edna Dean Baker and the faculty of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college for the members of the Mary Crane Nursery School auxiliary.

Miss Nina Kenagy, director of the Mary Crane Nursery school, gave an interesting sketch of the work which is being carried on with the children there, and Mrs. George M. Groves, 415 Davis street, Evanston, chairman of the auxiliary, outlined the purposes and plans of the organization which is interested in assisting with the support of this nursery school conducted by the National Kindergarten and Elementary college.

A Word on the Subject of Meats

A BRIEF MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF GLENCOE

FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS I have been observing the growth of Glencoe and neighboring suburban towns with much interest. Having recently concluded that I could offer a unique service to the people of these communities by providing them with the finest grade of meats—at prices far below those they have been obliged to pay heretofore—I opened the North Shore Market in Glencoe about three weeks ago.

Since this Market is in fact a retail branch of my wholesale business, I am in an unusual position which enables me to secure a grade of meats of exceptional and extreme high quality—and which makes it possible to sell them to you at prices which you have heretofore considered incredibly low.

But these prices are a fact. The quality is a fact. Ask those who are now coming here regularly. Both prices and quality are here in Glencoe to stay—marking a new and unusual epoch in the marketing of a whole community.

Watch for further announcements in this newspaper. I cannot print all the prices, but I know that the prices and quality of every item in the shop will pleasantly surprise you.

I thank you for your interest and your patronage.

A. ROSENBUSCH.
