Said the great orator:

How much longer will you abuse our patience?

THE ROMAN FORUM, as a center for disseminating information, was at best a meagre medium for spreading publicity—slow and uncertain according to modern standards.

What a contrast is presented by today's methods! All you need do now is to lift the receiver of your telephone, call your home newspaper and tell the Classified Ad Taker what you want thousands to know. A luxury that Cicero and Caesar never knew!

DESIGNED FOR A PURPOSE

Those who study to become Interior Decorators are learning to create lovely designs such as are being used in the most selective circles to beautify the home. In this department design, as taught by Mr. Eddy, Mrs. Danielson and Mr. Harringer, is a complete and perfect foundation for a life of artistic activity.

But in the EVANSTON ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS design is not confined to these departments, for we regard it as the true basis of all artistic expression. Even in such classes as are drawing the nude figure, the greatest emphasis is laid upon design, so that the students may not in the end simply have learned to copy what is before them but they may find themselves equipped to bring to this world beautifully conceived ideas well designed and executed.
