Girls' Thursday Club Gives Valentine Play

"By the Valentine Tree," a play written by Miss Marjorie Barrows of Chicago, and appearing in the February issue of Child Life magazine, was given by the Girls' Thursday club this week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gibson, 553 Elder lane. Mrs. Gibson sponsors this group of Greeley school children, who live in her neighborhood.

The cast was as follows: Jiggers, the king's fool, Doris Scheerer; Mme. Snap, the fairy dressmaker, Betty Faxon; Snip, her bored husband, and the king's secretary, Susanne Blair; Twinkem, the fairy king, Lois Caverley; Joan, a little girl, Mary Loco; fairies and twinklets, Dorothy and Teddy Salinger, Barbara Faxon and Edith Loco.

Catholic Woman's League Party Attended by 200

The Valentine card party given Tuesday by the North Shore Catholic Woman's league, in place of its regular meeting, was entirely a success. More than 200 members and guests were present.

The flowers and decorations at the Winnetka Woman's club—where the party was held—and the refreshments served were in keeping with the day. Several prizes were offered.

Mrs. Maurice Lieber's Parliamentary Law class, sponsored by the league, will not meet next Wednesday.

CIRCLE TO MEET MONDAY

The Ridge Avenue circle will meet on Monday, February 20, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Ralph E. Perry, 654 Elder lane, with the assistance of Mrs. Charles Carlstrand. It is hoped that a large number of members with their neighbors, who have not as yet become members, will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cummins of 286 Ridge avenue sailed last Saturday, February 11, for Naples. They will spend several weeks in Italy, France, and England, returning here early in April.

LINDY WILL BE HAPPY TO CARRY YOUR MAIL

Postmaster Braun Will Tell You How to Share in the Historic Flight Tuesday

Would you like to have the pleasure of permitting 'Lindy' to carry one of your letters to some friend between here and St. Louis, next Tuesday?

The Lone Eagle will fly up to Chicago from the Missouri metropolis on Monday, carrying the mail, and will take a load back with him on Tuesday.

Postmaster Joseph C. Braun, and many of the postmasters hereabout are arranging to aid in getting a load of these specially dispatched missives, all specially postmarked, commemorating the return of this intrepid flyer to the service.

Postmaster Braun will give you further details relative to the time of the dispatch of this special mail from Winnetka. The St. Louis postmaster in his announcement of the flight, says:

Here's the Dope

"Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who before his triumphal flight from New York to Paris was Chief Air Mail Pilot on C. A. M. No. 2, between St. Louis and Chicago, will renew old acquaintances over this route.

"He has expressed a desire to again make the Air Mail trip covering the route on which he was compelled to jump twice with his parachute during the winter of 1926 on account of heavy fog.

"To commemorate his return to the Air Mail service, if for only a day, the Post Office department is providing a special cachet to be used on both his north and south bound flights and he will carry the mail, on schedule time, February 20, St. Louis, Springfield and Peoria to Chicago and returning February 21, Chicago, Peoria and Springfield to St. Louis.

Expect Great Volume

"The Air Mail carried again by Col. Lindbergh and especially over his maiden route, which he served so loyally, and from which he winged his way to great fame should be an inspiration for a large volume of mail as a tribute to him.

"Using his own expression, 'My reward will be your continued use of the Air Mail,' you are cordially urged to help swell the amount of mail to be carried by him on these two flights, and with this special postmark, these letters will have an unusual historical, as well as financial, value."

The Dorcas society of Winnetka (Norwegian) meets next Tuesday evening at 907 Ash street. The hostesses will be Mrs. Simonson and Miss A. Punswick.
