

RESIDENTS INVITED TO TUESDAY LENTEN TALKS

Rev. James A. Richards Begins Lectures on "Religious Life and Psychology"

Tuesday morning, February 21, under the general subject, "The Religious Life and Psychology," the Rev. James Austin Richards, minister of the Winnetka Congregational church, began his annual series of Lenten lectures which are annually enjoyed and appreciated by many members of the community. The talks promise to be of unusual interest this year for they deal with a subject constantly discussed and one about which so many different opinions are held.

In order to understand the speaker and the thought he wishes to develop it will be of great advantage to attend the lectures as regularly as possible, it is explained. Anyone in the community is welcome. The place of meeting is the Neighborhood room in Community House and the dates as follows: Tuesday mornings, February 28, March 6, March 20, March 27. There will be no lecture on March 13. The talks begin promptly at 10 o'clock and continue just an hour.

Psychology Much Exploited

"In the first of his five talks on religion and some current ideas in psychology," reads a comment by one of his listeners, "Mr. Richards presented the foundation and background of his topic by discussing various concepts of modern psychology. His definitions and reservations did much to clarify and set in order the very hazy ideas which most of us have about this fascinating and much discussed subject. A word of caution was very timely in approaching this very young science about which so little is yet really known. Great opportunity is afforded the unscrupulous practitioner for exploitation, and there are so many false and unfortunate ideas abroad as to just what psychology is that a little knowledge can prove a cruelly dangerous thing. Mr. Richards spoke of the interpretation of dreams, that popular catch-phrase, as being unwise in the extreme unless practiced by a trained psychologist as part of a co-total study of the whole life history of the case. He referred to various false assumptions in regard to certain schools of psychological thought and regretted the use of terms which are not at all intended to convey the meanings and implications they often seem to. To be a psychologist is not necessarily to roll in the mire.

Can Make for Fine Living

"He paid a high tribute to the band of conscientious and scientific experimenters and practitioners who, in spite of great differences of opinion in regard to even the fundamental concepts of the science, are proving to the world that psychology offers a technique of living far too precious to neglect. This technique, when it adds to itself the practice of religion, can bring the art of living to its finest and best.

"Understanding oneself is the first principle in living the worthwhile life. Mr. Richards considered the child at birth with an equipment of instincts but no consciousness of self. As that awareness arises there begins the adjustment to environment, and how successfully we are able to make that adjustment determines our ability to live an effective life. Not only is our conscious life involved but that great field of the subconscious, the recognition of which is the master contribution of modern psychology. The debate about certain aspects and concepts of this subconscious self can be let go as far as normal living is concerned, but we must recognize that we are in the hands of more than we know. There exists a field of mental-

Rabinof Soloist With Symphony

Benno Rabinof, Russian violinist, will be the soloist with the Little Symphony orchestra in the fifth and final concert of the New Trier Orchestral association series which is to be given in New Trier auditorium Thursday, March 1. Miss Frances Berkova, violinist, who was to have appeared as soloist on this program, was prevented from doing so because of extended engagements in Pacific Coast cities.

Benno Rabinof

beautifully and with uncanny technical finish."

Miss Bailey has been popular with north shore music lovers for several years and her appearance as soloist on the matinee program is occasioning widespread interest.

Evening Program

The evening's program will be as follows:

1. Overture—Leonore, No. 3. Opus 73 Beethoven
2. Entire Concerto in E Minor, Opus 64, for violin and orchestra Mendelssohn
3. Malaguena, from the Opera "Boabdil" Moszkowski
4. Suite from the opera "Carmen" Bizet
5. Overture from Wilhelm Tell Rossini

Afternoon Program

1. Three Movements from Ballet Suite, "The Nutcracker" Tschaikowsky
 - (a) Miniature overture
 - (b) Arabian dance
 - (c) Russian dance
2. Finale from Symphony in G Major ("Surprise Symphony") Haydn
3. Finale (Rondo) from Concerto No. 20 in D Minor, for piano and orchestra Mozart
4. Hungarian dance, No. 1 Brahms
5. Pilgrim's Chorus from the opera "Tannhauser" Wagner

Christ Church in Midst of Lenten Season Observance

"Man's Judgment on Himself" will be the subject of the sermon given by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard at Christ church, Sheridan road and Humboldt avenue, tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock services.

At the Vesper service in the chapel Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Rev. R. Malcolm Ward, assistant rector, will be heard in the first of a series of addresses on great religious biographies, his topic being, "St. Augustine: A Record of Spiritual Growth." The young people of the parish will comprise the choir at the Vesper services during the Lenten season.

Thursday evening, March 2, the rector will have a service of preparation for the Confirmation service to be held on the following Sunday. He will meet all those who are to be confirmed—men and women, boys and girls.

The usual midweek services will be held Tuesday and Thursdays mornings in the chapel at 9:30 o'clock.

The Choir Guild will meet next Tuesday morning for a Corporate Communion in the chapel at 9:30 o'clock. A business meeting will follow.

Monday, February 27, the women of the Guild and Auxiliary will meet in the chapel for a Litany service at 10 o'clock, followed by sewing from 10:30 to 12:30. A Lenten luncheon will be served at 12:30, followed immediately afterward by the Study class led by Mrs. Halstead of St. Mark's parish, Evanston. The subject is: "A Church Awake."

ity of which we are not consciously aware, but which retains a record of every impression we have ever received. Into this field we suppress and repress unpleasant memories and reactions, often experienced in early childhood, which later may cause the individual to misread the whole meaning of life. Conflicts and deterrents arise which can devitalize the power of effective living."

NEGRO WHO ASSAULTED NURSE HERE, CAPTURED

Six Months Search for Malachi Crowe Ends with His Arrest in Kansas City

Malachi Crowe, the Negro ex-convict for whom a nation-wide search has been underway since last summer when at the residence of Merrit B. Austin, 350 Elder lane, Winnetka, Crowe brutally assaulted Miss Ruth Sampson, a white nurse, residing at 4530 North Racine avenue, Chicago, was arrested in Kansas City, Kansas, Wednesday and the following day returned to Chicago, where he has been indicted by the grand jury.

The $1,000 reward for Crowe's arrest, $1,000 of which was offered by the Chicago Daily Tribune and $600 by the Village of Winnetka, will go to Sergeants William Roe and Walter Storms of the Chicago detective bureau, who located Crowe and brought about his arrest. He was employed as a servant at the home of Jay V. Holmes, a prominent attorney of Kansas City, under the name of Robert Brown, one of Crowe's aliases.

Last summer, while the Austin family was away from home, Crowe, by phone, in response to Miss Sampson's advertisement in the Tribune for a position as trained nurse, called her to the Elder lane residence. She was taken to the third floor of the building by Crowe and assaulted. Escaping from him she leaped from a window, sustaining a fractured skull, from which, however, she has since recovered.

Search Never Halted

Meantime, the search for Crowe has never ceased. He says he remained in Chicago two weeks before leaving for Kansas City, and at one time, before departing for the west, was at the home of a friend on the South side, when an officer from Winnetka, who had a tip that Crowe might be there, appeared at the front door. Crowe says he escaped through a rear door.

The news that Crowe had finally been apprehended was one of the most gratifying pieces of information that Chief of Police W. M. Peterson and all the other members of the Winnetka Police department have received in a long time.

Westmoor Road Paving Is Confirmed by Court

Village Attorney Frederick Dickinson informed the Village council last Tuesday evening that the special assessment proceedings for the widening of Westmoor road to 66 feet, from Rosewood avenue to Burr avenue, and paving with cinders that portion from Rosewood avenue to Hibbard road, had been confirmed by the Superior court.

This means that the improvement, preparations for which have extended over a long period, will now proceed as soon as bids can be advertised for and the paving contract awarded.

The superintendent of public works was also authorized to advertise for bids for the removal of the old Lyons' house at the northwest corner of Rosewood avenue and Westmoor road.

Perry Dunlap Smith to Attend Education Parley

Perry Dunlap Smith, headmaster of the North Shore Country Day school, will attend the meeting of the National Education association in Boston, February 27. At the meeting of the National Association of Girls' schools, which will follow this meeting, he will give a talk on, "Religion and Science in the Secondary School." He will also attend the meeting of the Progressive Education association in New York, March 4.

Woman's Club Calls Parents to Child Study Conference

Parents of students at New Trier High school, North Shore Country Day school, and the public schools of the north shore, as well as the members of the Winnetka Woman's club, are invited to attend four child study conferences to be given in March at the Woman's club. The course will bring to Winnetka experts in these vital subjects. The club anticipates having even larger audiences than last year, and extends a cordial invitation to all interested to attend and take part in the discussion and to have tea. There will be no fee for the course.

The program follows:
Thursday, March 1—3:30 o'clock—"The Nervous Child," Dr. Edwin Eisler, psychiatrist, executive director, mental hygiene department, Michael Reese dispensary; member of faculty, Northwestern university.

Thursday, March 8—3:30 o'clock—"The Spoiled Child," Miss Ethel Kavin, psychologist, Institute of Juvenile Research.

Thursday, March 15—3:30 o'clock—"The Superior Child," Dr. John L. Levy, psychiatrist, Institute of Juvenile Research.

Thursday, March 22—3:30 o'clock—"Parents' Mistakes."

1. Teacher's Viewpoint Mrs. James Fentress
2. Doctor's Viewpoint Dr. C. A. Aldrich
3. Psychologist's Viewpoint Miss Frances Dummer
4. Mother's Viewpoint Mrs. Alfred S. Alschuler