

A State Bank

A Savings Account at This Bank—Now!

THE only way to attain the certainty of permanent financial security is to save a part of all you earn. With a little "nest egg" steadily increasing, you are sure some day to be comfortably "well off."

You owe it to yourself and to your family to open a Savings Account—not some time in the future, but now! No income is so small that a definite part of it may not be banked. And it is surprising how small savings grow into respectable sums that may be the key to financial independence.

The sound reputation of this institution for integrity, friendliness and courtesy suggest that your account be placed here.

Banking Hours: 8 to 3; Saturdays 8 to 12:30

Monday Evenings 7 to 8

WINNETKA TRUST and SAVINGS BANK

Elm Street

at Center

Winnetka Scouts Receive Awards at Court of Honor

At the February meeting of the Winnetka Scout Troop committee held at Community House on Friday evening of last week, Winnetka Scouts were reviewed in tests passed during the month and advancement awards were made.

The awards are as follows:

Tenderfoot: Troop 2, Dexter Martin, Beecher Gass, Buster Meyers, Edward Johnson and Byron Nelson; Troop 4, Glen Bull, Harry Bergston and Alvin Mayer; Troop 5, Bob Meleney, Roscoe Dally, Platt Whitman, Arthur McKay, Alfred Price and Sherman Taylor.

Second class: Troop 2, William Doty; Troop 5, Harry Brown, Bill Heyn and Frank Seyl.

First class: Troop 2, George Beyers and S. Schuman.

Merit Badges: Bob Reschke, Troop 1, cooking; Ted Lundy, Troop 1, music; George Beyers, Troop 2, handicraft; William Kidd, Troop 2, scholarship; Bruce Thomas, Troop 3, chemistry and scholarship, and James R. Goetz, Troop 3, archery.

Capacity Houses Attend Skokie Drama Class Play

The play, a combination of "Alice in Wonderland" and "Alice Through the Looking Glass," presented by the Skokie school dramatic classes under the direction of Mrs. Frances Murray of the Skokie school faculty, was attended at both the Friday and Saturday evening performances by capacity audiences. The production, adapted from the original stories by Alice Gerstenberg, was executed entirely by the pupils and was declared to be a decided success.

For Sale

BARGAIN

Six tube Apex in a beautiful console with a $35.00 Peerless speaker built-in, light socket operated. This set sells for $135.00 without accessories. Will take for this demonstrator complete ready to operate, this is easily a $200 value.

$110.00

"Here's where your dollar gets distance."

(Open evenings 7:00 to 9:00)

THE RADIO SERVICE SHOP

18 Prouty Annex

Winnetka, Ill.

Ph. Winn. 1840

CONGREGATION TEMPLE DEDICATION MARCH 2

Prominent Leaders to Formally Open North Shore Congregation Israel Edifice

The dedication service of the new temple of North Shore Congregation Israel at Glencoe will be held Friday evening, March 2, at 8:15 o'clock. There will be appropriate dedicatory ceremonies, together with a message of greeting by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church, and addresses by Rabbis Solomon B. Freehof, Gerson B. Levi and Louis L. Mann. Admission will be by card only.

The opening session of the religious school in the new building will be held Sunday morning, March 4, at 10 o'clock. There will be special exercises, in which the children and graduate groups will participate. A pageant prepared for the occasion will be presented.

Present Play March 4

The use of the structure for informal social activities will be inaugurated Sunday evening, March 4, at 6:30 o'clock. The Congregational Sisterhood will be in charge of the arrangements for the evening. A supper will be served, and the Temple Players will present "The Youngest," by Philip Barry.

On account of limited capacity, the exercises on Friday evening, March 2, and Sunday morning and Sunday evening, March 4, will be only for members and their families and specially invited guests. All interested, however, are always welcome at the regular services of the Congregation, now held each Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, and it is intended to render the facilities of the building available for appropriate civic and community purposes.

The building will be open for public inspection Sunday afternoon, March 4, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Winnetkans Share Well in Lindy Mail Dispatch

Among the 100,000 letters which Col. Charles A. Lindbergh brought to Chicago on his mail plane flight from St. Louis Monday evening, 125 pieces were for Winnetka residents.

Each of these letters bears the "Lindy" stamp, cancelled with the special horse-shoe shaped stamp, reading, "Lindy Again Flies the Air Mail," while on the face of the envelope is also inscribed by the dispatcher "Lone Eagle."

Winnetka people, in like number comprising recipients of these special flight letters, dispatched similar mail on the return flight, made by Lindy early Tuesday morning, according to Postmaster Joseph C. Braun.

Infants' Wear

From head to toe—and at prices that are exceedingly low.

Spring Modes are Arriving

THE LEONARD SHOPPE

795 Elm Street