Poems to Music on Program at Club

Phyllis Fergus to Give Unique Repertoire at Meeting of Winnetka Woman's Club

Miss Phyllis Fergus' program of story poems, to be given next Tuesday at the Winnetka Woman's club meeting, will be divided into six groups. The grown-up group, first on the program, includes Eugene Field's "Long Ago," Minturn Peak's "A Flirt," Edmund Vance Cooke's "The Old Chest Upstairs," and Kipling's "My Rival." The boys' group comes second, with H. C. Burrner's "One, Two, Three," Burgess Johnson's "Soap," Montague's "Caste," and Eugene Field's "Sugar Plum Tree." The next offering will be a dramatic reading of Alfred Noyes' "The Highwayman."

Miss Ruth Breyspraak, Chicago violinist, will give the fourth group, consisting of several numbers written by Miss Fergus. Miss Breyspraak has studied abroad and has done concert work these as well as here.

Simpson's version of a little girl's idea of the dark, and Denny's version of a little boy's idea of it begin the fifth group, which is complete with Burr's "Lie Awake Song," and Hays' "Kids." The sixth group, winding up the program, includes "Jes' Be" by Hobart, "Triffin" by Montgomery, and "Ain't It Fine Today" by Malloch.

Miss Fergus has become well known in Chicago and elsewhere for her unique musical settings for poems, and for her presentation of them. The music committee, of which Mrs. John Hansel is chairman, expects a large attendance at this unusual program. Hostesses for the day will be: Mrs. E. Hubert Allen, Mrs. Arthur S. Coffin, Mrs. Morris L. Greeley, Mrs. William Harding King, Mrs. Robert Nicholas, and Mrs. Albert Smith.

Infant Welfare Reports on Drive

First Report on Annual Drive Brings Award of Two Prizes; More to Be Given

The Winnetka board of the Infant Welfare society met at the home of its president, Mrs. Ballard Bradley, on Monday, February 20. A report of the first results of the annual drive was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Dwight P. Green. A prize was awarded to the person who had obtained the largest number of subscriptions to date. This was won by Mrs. Ralph M. Jaeger, who had already secured twenty-nine subscriptions. Mrs. Greene should have honorable mention because she followed closely with twenty-four, the committee thinks. Another prize was awarded to Mrs. Harold Wilder, who handed in the first $100 subscription.

There will be other prizes awarded during the campaign, all of which have been donated by shops in the village or members of the board. These prizes will be given to the person who first hears from every subscriber on her list, the person who secures the largest number of subscriptions by the end of the drive, and the person who hands in the largest single subscription.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the chairman of the finance committee, Mrs. Harry Edmonds, 670 Blackthorn road, on Monday, March 5, at 12 o'clock. Luncheon will be served.

If the increased quota is to be obtained, every member of the board must strive to be present with a successful financial report, the committee announces.
