DANCE A SUCCESS

Last Thursday evening, February 23, Community House was the scene of the first dance that the Winnetka Triangle club has given this year. Music was furnished by Joe Schneider and his orchestra, and several other features helped to make the evening the success it proved to be.

Begin Series of Lenten Sermons at Cong'l Church

Tomorrow morning at the Winnetka Congregational church, the Rev. James Austin Richards will begin his series of Lenten sermons on "Christian Realities." The effort will be to give some outline of Christian truth considered not from the point of view of authority or tradition, but from the point of view of its present day reality. The topic tomorrow will be "The Place of Jesus" and the other topics will run as follows:

March 4—"The Experience of God."
March 11—"Becoming Aware of God" by Mr. Goodwin.
March 18—"The Christian Life."
March 25—"The Coming Kingdom."
April 1—"Immortality."

String Quartet Gives Program at Each School

A string quartet, directed by Lorenz Hansen and composed of members of the Little Symphony orchestra, presented the first of two programs at each of the Winnetka schools yesterday afternoon in connection with the musical appreciation study in the schools. The second program will be given sometime next month. Mr. Hansen is also a member of the music staff of the Skokie school.

The program given yesterday is as follows:

"Andante Cantabile" Tschaikowsky
"Chanson Sans Paroles"
..... Tschaikowsky
"Verineland" Swedish Folk Song
"Springtanz" Grieg
"Spanish Dance" Moszkowski

HEAR RABBI LEVY

Rabbi Gerson B. Levy addressed the North Shore Congregational Israel Friday, February 24, in the Winnetka Masonic temple, 708 Elm street, Winnetka. His subject was "Why a Jew?" being the third of a series.

Ethel Hale Directs
Work on Settings
for Dance Recital

Miss Ethel Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Hale, 761 Foxdale avenue, Winnetka, is to be in charge of the settings for the annual dance recital, to be given at Elmira college, Elmira, N. Y., March 16 and 17.

The dance recital is given once each year as the culmination of a year's work as taught in the physical department of the college. The types of dances to be presented this year include interpretive solo dances, minuets, scarf dances, Hungarian fetes.

The physical educational department of Elmira college teaches, besides dancing, regular gym work, basketball, baseball, hockey, volleyball; and sponsors ice and roller skating, tennis, archery, and hiking.

Elmira college, the oldest women's college to grant degrees equal to those granted to men, is now in its 73rd year with a total enrollment of about 600 students.

Winnetkans Depart for Cruise of West Indies

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dovenmuehle of 560 Ash street left for the South with their two children last Tuesday evening. The Dovenmuehle children will spend thirty-one days with Mrs. Dovenmuehle's mother, Mrs. Arthur Dyer of Nashville, Tenn., while Mr. and Mrs. Dovenmuehle are taking a West Indies cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Kraetsch of 455 Sunset road are to join Mr. and Mrs. Dovenmuehle in this cruise.

When they return from this trip, Mrs. Dovenmuehle will spend a month in Nashville with her mother before returning to Winnetka.
