

Lee Says:

THE annual "cold AND cough" season IS on!

ONE man told us YESTERDAY that he THOUGHT his cough WAS better—he said HE thought it ought TO be because he HAD practiced all NIGHT the night BEFORE!

BUT if there is SOMEBODY at your HOUSE who is suffering FROM a cold or cough, LEE'S Cough Syrup WILL go a long way TOWARD relieving the TROUBLE—

IT'S a splendid REMEDY to have in YOUR medicine cabinet, PARTICULARLY if there ARE children in the HOME—it seems to REACH that irritating THROAT "tickle"— ONLY 50 cents a BOTTLE, too!

Go in Debt to Yourself!

Most of us have been taught that it is poor business to go into debt. That is still good advice.

There is one form of debt that has many advantages, and that is a "Debt to yourself."

Make believe right now that you owe yourself $100, that you had borrowed that amount of money and signed a note for it, due in ninety days.

Without a doubt you would save $100 in ninety days to pay the note when due. This being the case, why not go in debt to yourself, give yourself a promissory note due in ninety days then SAVE to meet the obligation.

Was 79 Years Old

Mr. Burley was in his 79 year, having been born in Chicago October 10, 1849, the son of Augustus H. Burley, who came to Chicago in 1836. His uncle, Arthur G. Burley, who settled here in 1834, was the founder, with Mr. John Tyrrell, of the old established firm of Burley and Tyrrell.

Mr. Burley prepared for college at Brattleboro, Vermont, and entered Amherst in the Fall of 1868. He remained at Amherst only one year, and poor health prevented further college attendance.

He attended the old Union College of Law in Chicago, however, (which afterwards became the Northwestern University Law School) and graduated from it in 1876, with the degree of LL. B.

About 1888, he joined James S. Norton, and J. Wilson Howell, to form the legal firm of Norton, Burley and Howell. After Mr. Norton's death in 1896, he formed a partnership with Wm. H. McSurely, which continued until Mr. McSurely was elected to the Superior Court bench in 1907.

Mr. Burley specialized in private practice, and in the care of estates in particular. He served as administrator for many of the estates of the older Chicago families, such as the Ogdens, the Jerome Beechers, the Tyrrells, that of Mr. W. E. Jones, etc.

Mr Burley had a high ideal of his responsibilities as a citizen, and performed his full share of civic duties. He served as President of the Chicago Historical Society for many years, was a trustee of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, from its organization, and was a trustee of Graceland Cemetery. He was also a director of the Illinois Merchants' Trust Co.

He belonged to the University, Chicago and Union League clubs, The Chicago Literary society, and the Caxton club.

In 1880 he married Avis H. Blodgett of Waukegan, Illinois. Their two children, Ruth, Mrs. George Illingworth, and Avis, Mrs. Roger Boutell, reside in England and Santa Barbara, Cal., respectively.

Mrs. Avis B. Burley died in 1883. In March 1913, Mr Burley married Miss Mary E. Blodgett, who, with their four children, survives him. Mr. and Mrs. Burley and their children, came to live in Winnetka in 1921, purchasing their home at 651 Prospect avenue from Mr. Lyman T. Walker.
