

Four Collisions
Feature Sabbath
Motoring Locally

Four automobile accidents occurred in Winnetka Sunday evening. At 6:20, a cab driven by A. H. Tanner and a car driven by R. Wachsman of 604 Glencoe road, Glencoe, collided at Elm and Center streets, with slight damage resulting, according to the report of Sergeant Ed Cummings and Patrolman Frank Rayburn.

A short time later, Mr. Schwitzer of 2322 Ridge avenue, Evanston, drove his car into a tree at Foxdale and Humbolt avenues, wrecking both front wheels and the radiator, according to Officer Harold Lewis. Schwitzer was not aware that Foxdale terminates at Humbolt, and did not detect the fact in time to avoid running into the tree.

Damage Was "Plenty"

At 11 o'clock Sunday evening, Patrolman Frank Rayburn reported a collision of two cars at Center street and Winnetka avenue, driven by A. E. Wolff of Ridge and Wilmette avenues, Wilmette, and Wallace Carlson of 188 Forest avenue, Winnetka. Neither driver was injured, according to the report of Officer Rayburn, who laconically added, "the damage to the cars was aplenty."

The fourth accident Sunday evening was at Green Bay and Tower roads, where, according to the report of Officer H. C. Lewis, Charles Ould of 16 Vine street, Lake Forest, stopped, preparatory to turning west on Tower, when an approaching car hit his car head-on, the impact breaking the front axle of Ould's car. The driver of the other car, it is said, backed out of the wreck and hastened on his way, without stopping to ascertain the extent of the damage, and before Ould could get his car license number.

Truck, Avoiding a Truck,
Smashes Into Another Car

A car driven by Mrs. H. Schmidt, of Happ road, Northfield, was damaged when hit by a truck driven by Steve Gerdodian, of 2118 Central avenue, Evanston, at church and Hill roads, Winnetka, Monday evening at 6:30.

Mrs. Schmidt had stopped, preparatory to turning west on Hill road. Gerdodian, in cutting in to avoid hitting another truck which was standing on Hill road, preparatory to turning north on Church, ran his truck into Mrs. Schmidt's car, as a result of which both car and truck were considerably damaged, according to the report of Patrolman Harold Lewis.

ENTERTAIN POET

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of 1228 Scott avenue entertained Carl Sandburg, the poet, writer, and lecturer, at their home, Sunday afternoon, February 26. Mr. Dickinson and Mr. Sandburg were college friends in Lombard college, Galesburg, Ill. While in the Dickinson home. Mr. Sandburg autographed his books for Mr. Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Fulton of 884 Hill road, and their daughter, Helen, have returned from Miami, Fla., where they stayed at the Miami Biltmore at Coral Gables.

Mrs. Ira J. Wilson, 325 Ridge avenue, entertained a group of her neighbors a week ago last Thursday afternoon. The guests brought their sewing with them.

Mrs. A. Fletcher Marsh of 645 Hill road is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Lawrence N. Murray of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Murray arrived February 27, and expects to remain about ten days.
