University Guild to Open Exhibit Monday of Chicago Paintings

Monday will be important in Evanston University guild activities.

It will see the opening of the exhibition of paintings by artists of Chicago and vicinity at the Orrington hotel. In the afternoon "Campus Day" will be observed at Annie May Swift hall on Northwestern university campus.

Appearing on the program of the latter will be the Northwestern university women's glee club, directed by Prof. Glenn Cliffe Bainum; Prof. James Lawrence Lardner will read Browning's "Andrea del Sarto" and various students will give reports of women's activities on the campus.

The next Early American Art seminar will be held March 26 at the home of Mrs. Albert H. Ullrich, 925 Lake avenue, Wilmette, and will be devoted to "art needlework." Tuesday, Feb. 20, the seminar had an especially interesting meeting with Mrs. Emma B. Dodge of Deming place, Chicago, devoted to the study of her collection of early Americana. This includes the first Valentines made in America, those made for Queen Victoria; the first Marseilles bedspread made in this country, samplers from many countries and silhouettes of wonderful variety and rarity.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mrs. Charles V. Sommer of 425 Provident avenue, who sailed from Baltimore, Md., on January 11, for Miami, Havana, St. Petersburg, and New Orleans, returned home last week with many interesting accounts of her travels. Mrs. Sommer spent a week in Havana, and visited several of the surrounding native villages, and was especially interested in the native homes with their thatched roofs and the use of policemen to keep beggars away. She was in New Orleans during the Mardi Gras.

Mrs. Arthur F. Marquette of 62 Warwick avenue, Winnetka, entertained her bridge club of Evanston friends at luncheon at her home Friday.
