

Capacity Audience Hears MacDowell Group Musicales

On February 28, the second north shore studio was opened to the MacDowell society, the first meeting of the season having been held at the Benjamin Marshall studio. Last Tuesday evening a musical program was presented and owing to the society's growth, the members filled the large studio of Elizabeth Heath in Highland Park.

After a short talk by the president, Frank W. Ambler, on the north shore society's aims and progress in assisting the MacDowell colony at Peterborough, N. H., Miss Priscilla Carver and Mrs. Heath gave a number of compositions written for two pianos: "Andante and Variations" by Schumann, "Gavotte," by Raff, and "Romance" and "Waltz" from Rachmaninoff's second suite. Between these groups, Dr. Davies Lazear of Winnetka, assisted by Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt of Glencoe, sang "The Dedication of Franz," an aria from "Manon" by Massenet, "My Desire," by Cadman, and "The Tally-Ho" by Leoni.
