

Peace vs. War, Subject for the Uptown Forum

The question of preparing for peace vs. preparing for war will be debated at the Uptown Forum, Chicago, Sunday evening, March 4. Frederick J. Libby of Washington, secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, widely known propagandist and lobbyist for peace measures and programs, will take the affirmative of the question "Resolved: That the United States Needs a Peace Program More Than a Defense Program." Major Thornton A. Mills of Chicago, a leader in patriotic and military organizations, will speak in the negative. The discussion will emphasize the seeming conflict between Secretary of State Kellogg's proposals of treaties outlawing war, and the big navy program now being discussed in Congress.

The Uptown Forum meets in the auditorium of the People's church, 941 Lawrence avenue, just east of Sheridan road, Chicago, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Jacob Smith, 879 Oak street, entertained a group of her friends at a card party at her home on Friday, February 24.
