

North Shore to Participate in Garden and Flower Show

Exhibit Four at Garden, Flower Show Open to All

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

The sight of a Kentucky cardinal caroling forth his message of "Cheer, cheer" from his lofty perch, and melting snow trailing its wet way across sidewalks, diverting the eyes of a pedestrian with a touch of spring fever from too much tree gazing, tempts us to turn again and again to thoughts of gardening and to the printed information that continues to come for Chicago's second annual Garden and Flower show. Today, at least, as we write, anything pertaining to gardens has its intriguing appeal. Hundreds, too, on this north shore, find the garden and flower exhibition a topic of much discussion.

In a newspaper office one hears many things, one of which is causing a little misunderstanding as to entries in this second exhibition which will be held in the Hotel Sherman from March 24 to April 1. Some have inferred that the only amateur exhibitors may be garden clubs, but this misapprehension we hasten to rectify. A special section on arrangement, Section IV, is open to all, those outside of clubs, and those belonging to clubs. This exhibit is to be an arrangement of bud, branch or seed pods, or any other natural growth other than flowers. Any container may be used. Nothing artificial may be exhibited. Prizes will be awarded upon consideration of the following points: color harmony, relation of material to receptacle, distinction, and perfection of arrangement.

Further announcement we quote: "Several innovations have been put into the forthcoming garden and flower show. Garden decoration will be presented with sculpture by Chicago and Illinois artists, and by rustic bits which will include an exhibit from the Chicago schools of birdhouses. Mrs. Theron Colton of Chicago will have the birdhouse exhibit in charge.

"Mrs. James H. Burdett is chairman of a committee of garden club members who will open and operate a tea garden during the nine days' showing. "An art salon is planned which will gather under one roof a collection of the best in flower and garden pictures and in outdoor decorative effects. This is in the hands of an art committee with Mrs. Edward Brion of Glencoe and Mrs. Johnston Bowman of Evanston as co-chairmen.

"In addition to a comprehensive display of life-size gardens, bits of forest preserve landscaping, cut flowers, flowering plants, and miniature models of houses with appropriate grounds, there will be exhibits featuring gardening from less familiar angles."

The Wilmette Garden club, the Kenilworth Garden club, the Home and Garden club of Kenilworth, the Winnetka Garden club, and the Glencoe Garden club are those in our villages active in their preparation for participation in the large exhibition which is put on by the Hotel Sherman Exposition department and the Garden Club of Illinois.

Auxiliary Card Party Adds to Church Fund

The card party given Monday by the Young Women's auxiliary of the Winnetka Congregational church swelled considerably the fund that active group is raising for the new church building. The young women now have almost $700 of their $1000 goal, raised through this party and their December sale of children's things.

Mrs. Heber Smith had charge of the party, which was held at Mrs. Marcus Richards', 1240 Tower road. Prizes were donated by several local merchants, including Marion Calkins, Eckart's Hardware shop, Hubbard Woods pharmacy, Hubbard Woods Hardware shop, Painted Butterfly, Miss Herbst, Duncan shop, Elsie Thal, Taylor's Hardware shop, and the three florists, Ilg, Edwards, and Borovicka.

The auxiliary met Wednesday with Mrs. Roger Ballard of 862 Foxdale avenue to sew for the Infant Welfare.

Bryn Mawr Alumnae to Give Lecture Benefit

Every year the alumnae of Bryn Mawr college gives a scholarship to a girl going to Bryn Mawr from their certain district. The district including Chicago and its suburbs has now three scholars at Bryn Mawr. Last year the committee brought Cornelia Otis Skinner to Winnetka. Her performance that night and her popularity since justified their efforts.

This year on March 30, the Bryn Mawr Regional Scholarship committee is bringing Dr. Wilfred Osgood to Winnetka to speak on "Abyssinia and the Source of the Blue Nile." In 1927-28 Dr. Osgood was the leader of the Field Museum Abyssinian expedition which covered nearly 2000 miles by caravan in one of the least known parts of the world.

The lecture will be illustrated by slides and motion pictures taken by experts. It will be given in the new auditorium of the North Shore Country Day school.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the committee: Mrs. John Reilly, chairman; Mrs. Gilbert Scribner, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Samuel Greeley, and Miss Harriot Houghteling.

Circle Notes

Mrs. Harrison Heater, soprano, will render two groups of songs before the reading of "The Fool" by Agnes Mathis Cherry at the Pine Street circle musicale and reading on Friday, March 9, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Holton at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Edward Hartshorne, Mrs. Thomas Holton, Mrs. Thomas McLaren, and Mrs. Harry Mess are the hostesses.

Bridge will be played at the home of Mrs. McLaren and Mrs. Hartshorne, and all the guests will assemble at Mrs. Mess' home for tea. This is a benefit party for the Lake Bluff orphanage. Mrs. Lyman Proctor and Mrs. G. W. McSweeney are in charge of reservations.

Mrs. Frank Wagner was hostess Wednesday at a meeting of the sewing committee of the Oak street circle, at her home, 467 Provident avenue. Mrs. Francis Duncan is chairman of this committee, which meets once a month to sew and enjoy a social hour.

The next meeting of the Fuller Lane circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray T. Metzger, 132 Fuller lane, on Monday afternoon, March 5, at 2:30 o'clock. The circle will sew for the Mary Crane nursery.

Rachel Foster to Wed John Manierre at Church Ceremony

The Winnetka Congregational church will be decorated with spring flowers and ferns for the wedding this afternoon of Miss Rachel Foster to John Foster Manierre. At 4:30 o'clock, the Rev. James Austin Richards will read the marriage service, and immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster, 596 Maple avenue.

The bride will wear a gown of white chiffon and point appliqué lace. The skirt is made of flounces of the lace, which comes from the wedding dress of the bride's mother. The veil is of real lace, and the train is white satin. She will carry a shower bouquet.

The bridesmaids' gowns are also made of chiffon and lace. All of them are bois de rose, and their horsehair hats are the same color. They will carry arm bouquets of spring flowers. The matron of honor, Mrs. Francis P. Magoun, Jr. (Margaret Boyden), will be dressed the same as the other bridal attendants. The bridesmaids will be Miss Katherine Manierre, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Malcolm Shroyer of Chicago, Miss Helen Hough of New York City, and Miss Susan Carey of Baltimore.

Dillan R. Brown will be Mr. Manierre's best man and the ushers are to be Malcolm Shroyer, Robert Porter, Arthur Moulding, Thomas Strachan, Dudley Sherwood, and Philip Schofield.

After a short trip to the country home of Mr. Manierre's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John T. Manierre, the young couple will be at home at 817 Chestnut court, Winnetka. Their real honeymoon will be a European trip this summer, after Mr. Manierre's graduation from the Northwestern University law school.

Guests who have come from out-of-town for the wedding are Mrs. Frederick P. Bagley and her two daughters, of Boston; Mrs. Cleaves Bennett of Champaign; Mrs. Paul R. Reed of Boston; and Mrs. John W. Meyers of Boston.
