

The "Housewarming"—an epochal day in the history of Lloyd Hol-lister Inc.

Thongs form un-broken parade to march through the plant on inspection tour.

THE PICTURES: Top row (left to right)—Watching stitcher operate—Getting "close-ups" of big press—The Gordons in action. Below—Rotary club in composing room. Middle row—Editor Weber handing out "Mique-ro-scope," a souvenir newspaper—The girls of the plant serving refreshments to visitors—The folder attracts attention. Bottom row—The cutting machine, a popular spot—Two views of the big press grinding out newspapers.

(Lehle photos)

