

New Trier Track Men Will Engage Western Rivals

New Trier trackmen will engage in a meet with Proviso and LaGrange Saturday morning at Patten gym, with possibly a Morton team entered to grab a handful or more of points.

In a former meet with Proviso and Morton, New Trier did a bit of cleaning up on the other two schools in the seniors while Proviso ran off with the junior meet with Morton trailing in both divisions. The New Trier juniors met defeat last Saturday when they took on the LaGrange men at LaGrange, being sent home on the short end of a 48 to 20 tally.

New Trier seniors have a good chance to take first honors against Proviso or Morton alone, but with the LaGrange team—itsself of no little ability—to reckon with, Coach Nay's men expect to have some up-hill work. Then, too, if Morton enters the meet, the high jump, and high hurdles, and possibly the shot-put are almost certain to fall that way. It will more than likely be a question of whether or not La Grange will be able to take away enough points from New Trier to give the contest to Proviso, or whether it will be Proviso that will loose the points. Then, also, the New Trier-Proviso fight may result in a victory for the LaGrange men.

The stiffest race will probably come in the quarter mile run, with Cassell of New Trier against McHugh of Proviso; in the former meet Cassell just beat McHugh by less than a yard, and if McHugh can gain the lead early in the race, Saturday, he probably will be able to retain it.
