Invite to Fashion Show at Orrington on Tuesday

North shore people have been invited to an advanced Spring showing of latest modes in the grand ballroom of the Orrington hotel, Evanston, Tuesday afternoon and evening, March 13. The exhibit is to be arranged under the personal direction of Helen E. Bennon, 710 Church street (opposite the Orrington) in Evanston. There is to be special entertainment in the afternoon and dancing in the evening.

HIGH IN SCHOLARSHIP

Several New Trier girls have achieved splendid records at Rockford college this year, according to reports received by the school. Ruth Olson received five A's, an A in every subject, and Elizabeth Freund and Catherine Cook both received 2 A's and 3 B's in their five subjects.

HEAR OF CHINA MISSIONS

The Rev. Paul Hutchinson spoke on missionary work in China, at the Young People's meeting in the Congregational church last Sunday evening. He emphasized the fact that not only does the missionary teach the Chinese, but also he learns much from them. It is a give and take arrangement. He gave many interesting examples and illustrations of this and other points from his own experiences in China.

S. Scott Joy, 370 Sheridan road, recently returned from Florida to his residence for a few days. He reports that Mrs. Joy, Miss Dorothy Joy, Miss Elizabeth Joy and Bob Joy are all busy in Florida with golf, tennis and swimming. Mr. Joy expects to be back and forth between Winnetka and the South until May, when the entire family is expected home.

Child Study Meetings Proving Popular With Parents and Teachers

The Thursday afternoon child-study conferences being offered by the education department of the Winnetka Woman's club are proving very popular with north shore parents and teachers. The talks are open to any of them who are interested, as well as to the club members. Next Thursday at 3:30 Dr. John L. Levy, psychiatrist with the Institute of Juvenile Research, will speak on "The Superior Child and His Problems of Adjustment," discussing what the attitude of the parent and teacher toward the superior child should be. Dr. Levy, a man of unusual attainments and splendid ability, was chosen by the Commonwealth Fund of New York to come to the institute. He has lectured all over Chicago.

This week's talk was on "The Spoiled Child," and was given by Miss Ethel Kawin, a psychologist with the Institute of Juvenile Research.

"The Nervous Child" was the subject on March 1. The speaker was Dr. Edwin Eisler, executive director of the mental hygiene department of Michael Reese hospital, and a member of the Northwestern University faculty.

Dr. Eisler began his talk with a description of the characteristics of the nervous child, stating that nervousness has a variety of manifestations, such as curiosity, exploration, marked distractibility, and impulsive tendencies. The nervous child needs success up to his natural capacity. Children who have under-energy tendencies, such as laziness, indicate something complex. In order to investigate the nervous child, one must know his home, school, physical history, and his mental and emotional makeup.

This lecture was very well attended, and the audience showed marked interest by asking many intelligent questions.

Benefit Bridge Helps to Bring English Hockeyites

Under the auspices of the North Shore Hockey association, a bridge benefit was given at the home of the Walter A. Lamsons, 940 Sheridan road, Winnetka, Tuesday afternoon, March 6. The purpose of the affair was to raise the first $100 to assist in defraying the expenses of the English Field Hockey team in its United States tour next fall.

On November 8 the English team is to play the team of the North Shore Hockey association on the football field of New Trier High school, which will be fixed for this game, through the courtesy and permission of Frederick E. Clerk, principal of New Trier.

The North Shore Hockey association is made up of two Winnetka teams and one from Evanston. Previous to the forming of this new hockey association the Winnetka association was connected with the Chicago association. Any person from any of the other suburbs who wish to become members, but whose village does not have a hockey team, may become a member of this association upon approval by the officers and members. Mrs. Thomas McLaren, 1004 Pine street, is president of this association. She and Miss Elizabeth Lamson were hostesses at the benefit last Tuesday.

Northwestern Deru men are to be guests of honor at the Purple Key dance which will be held Saturday evening, March 10, at the Georgian hotel.

Members of the Skipper club of Wilmette, taking advantage of a break in the cold weather, held a roller skating party last Monday afternoon.
