N. S. Country Day Seniors Give Class Play March 24

The Senior play, "Tillie of Bloomsbury," by Ivan Hay, will be presented in the auditorium of the North Shore Country Day school, on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 23 and 24. This play was given in Chicago a few years ago, under its second title, "Happy-go-lucky," with O. P. Heggie in the leading role. Every member of the Senior class will have a part in the play, on one of the two nights.

Students in English Class for Foreigners to Graduate Monday

The English Classes for Foreigners are to hold special exercises in Community House next Monday evening, March 19, marking the close of the winter term, at which time forty-two pupils will receive certificates for work done.

The certificates will be presented by Carleton W. Washburne, superintendent of public schools in Winnetka, who will also make a short address. There will be talks by Dr. J. W. F. Davies and Mrs. Eloise W. Wortley. The principal address of the evening will be by Seymour Olmsted, who has been teaching the Americanization work in these classes.

This work has been carried on by two teachers of the Winnetka Public school, Miss Millicent Anderson and Miss Mabel Ducker, and by Mrs. A. Youngquist, assisted by her daughter, Miss Livea Youngquist, the latter of Horace Mann school.

The Good Luck club of foreign young people are to be present as guests. There will be a social hour and refreshments will be served.
