Homeward Bound

Willibald Seypelt, aviator, brother of Mrs. Louis W. Sauer of Winnetka will return to the north shore soon. He arrived in New York from Europe this week following an extensive air-plain tour of the Continent in his "Yankee Doodle" Flivver plane. Seypelt and his companion, George Kern, Jr. of New York, covered 5,000 miles in their European flights at a flying cost estimated at three and one-half cents a mile.

Mrs. Robert Mickey of Barrington is spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Richard J. Burrows, of 216 Myrtle street.

Calkins' Dress Shop Gets Garb of Attractive Hues

If the Winnetka police have been kept particularly busy this week clearing up motor wrecks just a half-block east of the tracks, on Elm street, it is because feminine eyes have been attracted to the striking lavender curtains at the large front windows of Marion I. Calkins' dress shop at 724 Elm street.

Mrs. Calkins has greatly enlarged her shop, and she commissioned the Ernst Von Ammon studio to decorate it. In keeping with the lavender color scheme, they put on the walls an exquisite French paper with a lavender back ground and gold and purple figures. The cases have all been done in lavender, and the furniture is coral color. Mrs. Calkins' hat boxes are purple and gold. A golden screen divides the large front room from the cases. A fresh supply of spring sports things is now hung in the lavender cases.

One corner of the new shop has been taken over by the Book Nook, which was in the Polly Prim shop on Oak street. Mrs. Dudley Palmer and Mrs. Karl Korradly conduct this circulating library.

TO VISIT CHINATOWN

Mrs. Theodore J. Coyne, Miss Carolyn Bochmer of Highland Park, and Mrs. Anita Willette Burnham are in charge of arrangements for conducting a group of the Matheon club members of Oak Park through "Chinatown" Saturday, March 24. The group will visit some of the homes, shops, religious places, and theaters, preceding the tour with luncheon at the Mandarin Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yates Hoffman, 921 Pine street, returned Tuesday from a fortnight's trip and golf outing at the Pine Hills club at Pass Christian, Miss.
