Members of Southern Club Luncheon Guests

One of the charming spring luncheons of the season will take place today at 2 o'clock, at the Illinois Women's Athletic club when the twenty junior members chosen by the Southern Woman's club will be entertained by the chaperons and the president, Mrs. Edgar F. Alden, 352 Linden avenue, Winnetka.

Decorations and favors will be carried out in the green that is so suggestive of both St. Patrick's day and spring. It has long been the dream of Mrs. Alden to organize a junior membership in the Southern Women's club.

Mrs. Edwin Galloway returned to her home in Xenia, O., Wednesday morning after spending about a week with her son, Dr. Charles E. Galloway of 940 Private road.

Debutante Now Member of Visiting Nurse Auxiliary

Miss Margot Atkin, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey B. Atkin of 12 Indian Hill road, has been elected a member of the Visiting Nurse auxiliary. This is part of an organization of women which was formed in 1889 and incorporated one year later. At that time one nurse was employed, while in 1928, the organization employs a superintendent, an assistant superintendent, eleven supervisors, 120 graduate nurses, and twelve student nurses. These nurses care for the sick in their own homes, each nurse paying several calls daily. The organization has sources of income from public subscriptions, gifts and endowments, a fund in the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, and from junior memberships.

Apart from the nine men who form the board of an advisory committee for financial plans, this well established organization is composed entirely of women. The board of directors is composed of forty-two women, who have charge of the business plans. The auxiliary membership is limited to seventy-five members and about twelve associate members. Within this auxiliary are the various sub-committees in charge of the carrying on of its volunteer work.

The board of directors of the North Shore Art league held a meeting on Thursday of last week to discuss plans for the coming exhibition, which is to be held at the Orrington hotel in April.

Miss Ashton Wilson of Fayetteville, N. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wilson of that city, who made her debut with Miss Virginia Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wallace of 815 Mt. Pleasant road, is at the Orrington hotel, Evanston visiting the daughter of the Ralph D. Hubbarts, Miss Mattibelle Hubbart.

Miss Edwina Cadmus, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Cadmus, 1126 Tower road, entertained a group of about forty north shore young people at a dance at her home last Saturday evening. It was a Leap Year party.
