

For Your Convenience—
A New Winnetka Office

714 Elm Street

Enlarged facilities to meet the growing needs of North Shore clients are provided in these new quarters, located on the first floor just west of the Masonic Temple. This is the first office on Elm Street west of Sheridan Road. The same personnel identified with the activities of the old office, at 746 Elm Street, will remain at your service.

You will find this office convenient to visit when you are in the neighborhood. Courteous attention will here be given your inquiries. In buying, selling, renting or seeking solution to some other problem concerning North Shore property, learn to make use of this close-coupled organization. Its representatives are in constant touch with current developments. They have behind them 44 years of experience, specializing in this district, and facilities that make possible prompt and profitable action.

Why not visit the new office, the next time you are on Elm Street? Our representatives will be glad to meet you, and tell you more about our services.
