Young People Are Told It Is Deeds that Count

The Rev. R. R. Malcolm Ward of Christ church addressed the Young People's meeting last Sunday. He emphasized particularly the point that it is deeds, and not mere thinking and words, that lead to success.

The meeting this Sunday is expected to be an interesting one, "Chief" Davies will lead. The subject for discussion will be "What Can the Young People Do with the Eleven Meetings Left of This Year?" It is hoped that all the members will consider the question beforehand and come prepared to express their own ideas and suggestions.

RAISE CHAPTER HOUSE FUNDS

The Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae are busy these days raising funds for the new chapter house at Northwestern. A large sum was raised at a rummage sale held in Evanston last Saturday. Mrs. Herbert Bartling of 116 Fuller lane had charge for Winnetka. The next benefit affair will be a card party on April 16, at the Evanston Country club. Mrs. L. E. Mitten of 562 Hill terrace, president of the alumnae, is in charge of the party. A regular monthly business and social meeting will be held next Wednesday with Mrs. Edwin Blomquist of 2808 Grant street, Evanston.

J. W. F. Davies, 652 Lincoln avenue, recently returned from Philadelphia where he attended a convention of the Religious Education association. Thursday evening, March 8, he spoke at the banquet.

Miss Marjory Meecker, daughter of A. A. Meecker of 941 Oak street, will arrive home next Saturday to spend about ten days with her father before returning to St. Mary's school at Knoxville.

The New Trier debating team made trips to different schools to hear their debating teams, during the last week. They went to Morton for the Morton-Austin debate, and to Waukegan to hear the Waukegan-Austin debate.
