Play Golf Every Day and Make $25,000. a Year

We want a man—preferably a retired Banker, Lawyer or Business man familiar with Commercial Paper and Mortgages, who by virtue of his Banking Credit or connections, can discount for us our short time notes, well diversified, made by good responsible people, the maximum outstanding at any time being considerably less than a hundred thousand dollars, with security of better than two for one.

To a man who can qualify for this position we can work out an arrangement that will require only a few hours each week and a remuneration that will run close to $25,000 a year.

All replies in confidence. Each letter from Principal who states fully his qualifications will be answered.

W. F. Hopkins and Floyd Kingsley Are Hurt in Auto Crash

Willard F. Hopkins of 1141 Tower road, Winnetka, vice president of the Chicago Trust company, sustained a fractured collar bone in an automobile accident last Sunday when the car in which he was riding with his wife and son, Willard, Jr., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Kingsley and sons, Floyd and James, Cumnor road, Kenilworth, was struck and overturned by another machine at Waukegan road and Touey avenue, Niles.

Floyd was pinned beneath the car and suffered a badly shattered leg, as well as other injuries. Mr. Kingsley escaped with but minor injuries. His wife was badly shaken up and bruised while Mrs. Hopkins suffered greatly from shock and a bad blow on the left side of her head. The two smaller boys were not hurt. All were taken to the Evanston hospital where they were attended by Dr. Frederick Christopher of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley and sons and guests had gone for a ride in the Kingsley car. When driving along Waukegan road near Touey avenue, another car, driven by James Beattie of 35 North Lorel avenue, suddenly left the pavement and then swerved back across the road head-on into the Kingsley car, overturning it. Beattie, who was uninjured, was booked on a charge of assault, pending the recovery of those injured.
