

Southern Club Juniors Elect First Officers

The Junior society of the Southern Woman's club of Chicago was formed Saturday afternoon, March 17, at the Illinois Women's Athletic club. The fifteen charter members, all of Southern birth and lineage, were guests of Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden of Winnetka, president of the mother club, at an unique St. Patrick's day luncheon.

Dixie Trembly of Chicago was elected president; Elizabeth Shepler of Evanston, treasurer; Dorothy Mathai, Chicago, secretary; Peggy Echols, Evanston, vice-president; Ramona Vinson, Chicago, membership chairman; Helen Blundon, Chicago, social chairman; Ruth Moore, Chicago, philanthropy chairman; Jayne Johnson of Glencoe, publicity chairman.

The Illinois Women's Athletic club is to be the future headquarters of the southern girls and they plan to meet there the first Saturday of each month. They are concentrating their efforts on philanthropy and on patriotic work.
