Johnny's Golf Hints

Putting is a game within a game, and too much practice cannot be devoted to the latter. There are several methods of putting, but I will describe the style that is used by the majority of the foremost pros.

When taking the stance, keep both feet at right angles to the hole. Bend forward at the waist so that your left eye is directly over the ball and the shaft of the putter is parallel with your left leg which should be in a vertical position.

The ball is played out on a line directly opposite the inside of the left foot. Keep both thumbs on top of the shaft and rest your hands on your left leg. This will help steady your stroke. Start the club back on a straight line with the cup, keeping the blade at right angles to the cup at all times. The latter movement should be done with your wrists, your hands remaining in a fixed position.

On starting the hit, keep the blade square to the cup, as you have on the back stroke, and keep it so, as you hit the ball, and then, to the finish of the stroke, your blade must be square on impact, and remain so until the stroke is completed, for the direction in which the blade faces is where the ball will go, when hit.

It is a little hard at first, but with brief practice you will be able to judge the distance and get better direction, if totally done with the wrists.

Lawrence Henry Presents
Concert at Skokie School

A piano recital was given last Thursday afternoon for the children of the Skokie School by Lawrence Henry of Evanston, a member of the faculty of the Sherwood School of Music. Mr. Henry is the pianist for Vera Mirova, the Russian dancer, and has been accompanist for the solo cellist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

His playing of Gluck's "Gavotte" transposed for the piano by Brahms, and his rendition of Chopin's Waltz in A flat were his best two numbers. In spite of a severe cold, which under ordinary circumstances would have caused him to cancel his engagement, he gave this complimentary recital to the children of the Skokie School. His numbers were greatly appreciated by the children. The program was as follows:

- Sonata (1st Movement) . . . . . Marinow
- Gavotte . . . . . Gluck-Brahms
- Waltz Opus 69 No. 1 . . . . . Chopin
- Prelude . . . . . Henri
- Prelude . . . . . MacDowell
- Country Gardens . . . . . Grainger

Country Day Pupils
Present Four Plays
at Morning Exercises

The schedule of morning exercises at the North Shore Country Day school last week included four plays, beginning with the Marionette plays, by the Tatterman Players, of Detroit, on Monday and ending with the Spring play written and acted by the Fourth grade, on Friday, which closed the school term before the spring vacation.

The Tatterman Players gave three very charming short scenes, one a rendering of a Mother Goose rhyme. The Fourth grade's Spring play was an original version of the story of Dionysius coming to earth to give to the nymphs the knowledge of the cultivation of the vine.

On Wednesday, the class which is studying history of art, presented three scenes which they had written from incidents in the lives of Leonardo da Vinci and Michel Angelo, and on Thursday evening the Fifth grade acted a French play based on an old legend from Brittany.

Matthew Lillig, proprietor of Chambers Cafe, 552 Center street, Winnetka, accompanied by Mrs. Lillig, motored to Morocco, Ind., last Saturday and remained over Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Murray of 433 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, just have returned from a six weeks' vacation in Florida and New York. While in the east they visited their son, and some friends.

Edwin Hedrick, Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, has gone to Excelsior Springs for two weeks.
