

Suburban Leader Seeks Place on Sanitary Board

Declaring that the 49 cities and villages outside of Chicago which pay taxes into the Sanitary district are without representation on that important body, Major W. S. Fuller, a resident of La Grange for 15 years, is making an active campaign to win the Republican nomination to fill a vacancy on the Sanitary board's roster.

"The so-called country towns, which include such populous places as Evanston and Oak Park, Cicero and Berwyn, and have a population of nearly half a million, haven't had a representative on the Sanitary board for many years," says Major Fuller. They have one resident on the Board of Review, five on the County board but none on the Sanitary board. Yet they pay a large share of the taxes and have pressing sanitary problems which need solving. This situation led me to make the race."

Fuller, who is well known in ex-service, fraternal and insurance circles, is an independent Republican, who has been active in civic affairs but has never been a candidate for office. He is one of the most successful men in Cook county in his profession, insurance; past commander of La Grange post, American Legion; president La Grange Kiwanis club; on the Village board of Zoning Appeals and one of the west suburbs' best known and liked men.

He is on the Deneen slate, with Elmore, Glenn and Wright.

Mrs. H. Salmon of Wapolo, Iowa, returned home last week after spending the winter with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Miles T. Babb, 614 Willow road, Winnetka.
